

Wide Open GOP Convention Is Urged By Ike; Irked By Talk

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH and WALTER R. MEARS
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower wants a wide open Republican National Convention to stir the party's and the nation's interest—and insists he is no candidate's partisan or foe.

Eisenhower told The Associated Press he is plain disgusted by reports picturing him as a GOP puppeteer.

Eisenhower does not claim, however, that he is entirely happy with the course of Republican events during the last few months, but he emphasizes he never will deal in personalities.

He disavows a role of either pulling strings for — or cutting the ground from under—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, or of seeking to block the presidential drive of Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater.

PAT ON POLICY

Eisenhower feels that in taking this position he simply is standing pat on a policy he enunciated long ago.

The former president, whose home is on the Civil War battlefield here, acknowledges Goldwater's current commanding lead in the drive for delegates at the San Francisco convention. But he is adamant in a belief that this in no way rules out the possibility of another aspirant capturing the nomination.

This is what he means when he talks of a wide open convention.

Eisenhower insists that the good of the Republican party and the country will be served only if the convention delegates are given a choice in the showdown for the nomination.

WHY CONVENTION

Otherwise, he asks with a show of exasperation, Why have a convention at all?

Eisenhower emphasizes there are a number of Republicans with an eye on the presidency, no matter what their chances. He thinks the nation's voters should have a chance to size up all the potential nominees by seeing the field in action at San Francisco.

As for himself, Eisenhower reminds callers that he has been saying since before he left the White House he has absolutely no desire to be a king-maker—or even to express a

Must Control Air Pollution At Seven Stars

Hercules Alcor Chemical Co. of Seven Stars, Adams County, was ordered by the state today to control air pollution caused by the company's manufacturing operations.

In an order from the State Air Pollution Commission, the company was told to control its operations so that aluminum chloride is emitted through a stack "at such a rate that no visible emissions occur at ground level outside the plant property."

The commission also ordered the company to cease "on or before July 5" any of its aluminum chloride manufacturing "not altered in the manner set forth" by the directive.

The commission said it found emissions of aluminum chloride cause physical discomfort to the residents of Seven Stars and substantial damage to property there.

Dr. King To Seek Arrest For Civil Disobedience

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — After a second straight night march punctuated by violence, the integration drive in the nation's oldest city shifted focus today to Dr. Martin Luther King's vow to court arrest by civil disobedience.

King, who heads the sponsoring Southern Christian Leadership Conference, indicated he would attempt a sit-in at a segregated restaurant.

This type of demonstration has brought nearly 400 arrests here since Easter.

The last of the demonstrators got out of jail, with the help of a federal court order reducing bonds to $100 a charge, just in time Wednesday night to join 400 integrationists in the march to the old Slave Market downtown.

BOY, 9, DROWNS IN STREAM AT NATURAL DAM

Nine-year-old Clair Allen Spriggs drowned Wednesday night at Natural Dam about two miles from his home on Gettysburg R. 2, the Emmitsburg Rd.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Spriggs, he had gone to the dam early Wednesday evening with an older sister and her friends.

At Natural Dam, the Spriggs boy played with a group of children he met there, and was in and out of the water. A non-swimmer, he played in the shallow water a short distance south-east of the dam.

An older brother, Carl Spriggs, home on leave from the armed forces, came to the park area later in the evening, and when the sister was ready to go home it was agreed the older brother would bring the nine-year-old old home with him when he returned there.

PLAYED IN PARK

The child was in sight playing around the park area, developed over the last several years at the Natural Dam, until dark.

A little later the child disappeared. No immediate alarm was felt because he had been up and down the lengthy area of the lighted park several times with companions of his own age group. When he did not appear after some time a search was made of the park area without success.

As time wore on other members of the family were called in to join persons at the dam who were looking for the youth.

CALL FIREMEN

When he had not been found by 12:30 this morning, Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller Sr. was summoned and Barlow and Greenmount firemen were called to help in the search.

They checked through the stream and went up over the hill alongside the stream in their efforts to find the child.

About 1:35 o'clock this morning Gettysburg firemen were summoned through the Quick Call system to aid in the search with manpower, grappling hooks and portable lights.

CERTIFICATE PRESENTED TO EISENHOWER

General Eisenhower, titular head of the Republican party, accepted a certificate of merit for "contributions made in time and effort on behalf of the Young Republican Collegiate Movement in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the year 1964-64."

The presentation was made by C. Jackson Blair, president, at a luncheon today in the Hotel Gettysburg where the executive committee of the unit held its regular quarterly meeting. General Eisenhower spent 35 minutes with the group prior to the dessert course.

"IGNORE POLLSTERS"

In accepting the certificate, General Eisenhower advised the group to disregard the predictions of statisticians, pollsters and newspapers and other analysts and said, "Don't take any of these for granted until the votes are counted."

Citing the courage and spirit of the British during the bleak days preceding the Normandy victory, General Eisenhower urged the young Republicans to "put up a gallant fight for basic principles" and encouraged them to "multiply throughout the states" for a successful national organization.

"You must think for yourselves . . . and use your own minds and convictions," he said in "preparing to take an intelligent place in society." He advised the group to maintain an open mind and said, "I listen seriously to my grandson who just finished his second year in high school because he has some new ideas."

The Young Republican Council represents 35 colleges in Pennsylvania with a college membership of approximately 1,800 students and is one of the largest of 46 state chapters. It parallels the state committee of the Republican party in structure.

MANY GUESTS

Miss Diane Shafer, daughter of Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, attended the luncheon as a special guest. In addition to the state committee, guests included state chairmen from Virginia, Maryland, Connecticut and New York, a past candidate for national president, and chairmen of the Mid-Atlantic Federation of College Republicans from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Students from throughout the organization bombarded General Eisenhower Wednesday and today with telegrams urging his support of Governor William M. Scranton for the nomination for president. A strong "favorite son" movement is under way within the student organization.

$3.5 Billion Foreign Aid Bill Is Passed By House

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional foreign aid backers were buoyed by the down-the-line House approval of President Johnson's $3.5-billion foreign aid authorization request.

The only reduction — $27,000 — came about because of a technical correction of an oversight. Final approval came on a 230-175 roll-call vote.

Although Wednesday's House action gave the bill a major push, there's still a long course ahead before the money is forthcoming. The authorization approval merely sets a lid on spending.

NEED 2 AGREEMENTS

The House Appropriations Committee and the full House still must approve a final appropriation and the measure must run the full course in the Senate. The two chambers must end up in agreement before the funds are made available.

The first thicket administration strategists have to negotiate is the House Appropriations Committee headed by Rep. Otto E. Passman, D-La., and Passman, a key opponent of foreign aid, is talking in terms of big cuts.

He denied categorically that he had ever discussed with anyone a so-called "package" reduction in his committee of $250 million, as has been described in a published report.

PLAN LOPPING OFF

"Anybody who guessed on a figure of $250 million is really wild," Passman told a reporter. "Why, we'll take out that much in the first hour of the markup (subcommittee consideration of the appropriation bill)." Passman previously mentioned publicly a figure of $900 million as what he would like to lop off the President's program under the ceiling set by the authorization bill.

Seminary's

cal seminary "is that community of the faithful of the Church of Jesus Christ whose responsibility, exercised in a common life of worship and learning, is to understand the history of the people of God and of His saving acts, securing a sure knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His mission, in order that those called to the ministry may be trained to serve as pastoral leaders and teachers in the churches and in the specialized ministries required by modern culture."

BETTER PREPARATION
Curriculum aspects of the report included a deeper concern for preseminary training feeling that this should include training in scientific method and the scientific world view. There was also concern that seminary training should maintain a place for the study of original writings of the "minal thinkers" of the church as well as adequate preparation for the minister's work in the contemporary world and his training for disciplined and methodical self-education in the years of service following seminary. A final concern voiced by the report was for postgraduate study making possible doctoral work for qualified seminary graduates and special study for pastors serving parishes.

The report also called for more intense preparation for the ministry by ministerial candidates and a closer correlation of counseling services provided to ministerial students by colleges, church agencies and pastors.

cal seminary "is that community of the faithful of the Church of Jesus Christ whose responsibility, exercised in a common life of worship and learning, is to understand the history of the people of God and of His saving acts, securing a sure knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His mission, in order that those called to the ministry may be trained to serve as pastoral leaders and teachers in the churches and in the specialized ministries required by modern culture."

BETTER PREPARATION
Curriculum aspects of the report included a deeper concern for preseminary training feeling that this should include training in scientific method and the scientific world view. There was also concern that seminary training should maintain a place for the study of original writings of the "minal thinkers" of the church as well as adequate preparation for the minister's work in the contemporary world and his training for disciplined and methodical self-education in the years of service following seminary. A final concern voiced by the report was for postgraduate study making possible doctoral work for qualified seminary graduates and special study for pastors serving parishes.

The report also called for more intense preparation for the ministry by ministerial candidates and a closer correlation of counseling services provided to ministerial students by colleges, church agencies and pastors.

STOCKS EDGE UP

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market recovery carried into its third straight session with trading light early this afternoon.

Fractional gains among key stocks outnumbered losers. A scattering of pivotal issues moved up a point or so.

The market was higher at the start but the edge was thin in early trading. The general level improved as the session wore on, despite profit taking on the past two sessions of advance.

Julius Swope, secretary of the ambulance board displayed a citation "for community achievement" given the Ambulance Corps by the Gettysburg VFW.

Fire Chief Robert Hartman expressed his appreciation to those who had assisted with various projects and said help will be needed in connection with a circus to be held along the Harrisburg Rd. June 15.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE
Secretary Thomas Gormley read a letter stating that all firemen are covered by workmen's compensation by the borough in event of injuries received in line of duty as firemen. Treasurer DeHaas reported that state auditors checking the firemen's relief fund had informed the department that the state authorized use of the fund to purchase insurance which provides weekly income to firemen incapacitated by accidents incurred in performance of their duties as firemen. The insurance may also provide for payment of hospital and medical bills after workmen's compensation coverage expires and provides death benefits in case of death.

World War II that the secret weapon of the United States was the trained mind. As we look on college campuses and observe the buildings named for a distinguished alumni or friends, we are positive that Admiral Nimitz was accurate. The loyalty of graduates as expressed by their benefactions will be repeated time and again.

FELLOW TRUSTEE

"Once more the trustees of Alfred University have honored a fellow trustee and alumnus who by his benefaction has made possible the completion of one more unit of Alfred's dormitory complex for men.

"Now known as North Hall, this home for men students will bear the name of this trustee and alumnus, a native of nearby Erie County, who in the depression of the 30's determined to be prepared for the inevitable economic growth of this nation.

"He came to Alfred as a man with clear cut goals, with determination to succeed and with the ambition to take full advantage of the opportunities offered by the College of Ceramics and Alfred University. With this gift he repays in part his debt for the education he received and this is an expression of his gratitude to the university and to society. His professors testify to the fact that he was a demanding student and sought to get every bit of information from each course.

RESEARCH ASSOCIATE

"Following graduation and a successful business experience he returned as a research associate to complete his professional education and to prepare for his next goal. The establishment of a floor tile plant with a fellow alumnus has brought him material rewards but two paragraphs by one of his professors describe the orderliness and the breadth of this trained mind.

"The story is fantastic. The first car of tile from the tunnel kiln was 100 per cent saleable. Within a year the capacity was doubled without adding to plant size.

"Thus from an engineering point of view, with proper financing, sound product development, careful design of plant and equipment for future expansion, this is really a success story.

"By the authority given me by the board of trustees, I hereby dedicate this dormitory as Reimer Hall and present you John J. Reimer this key as the evidence of our action. With the key go the thanks of many students in the years to come."

Wide Open GOP

public preference for any would be presidential nominee.

HAS FAVORITE

Of course, Eisenhower tells those who talk with him, he does have a personal favorite for the nomination, just as most other Republicans do. But he says he has never told anyone who his man is, and he has no intention of doing so.

This, he argues, would destroy his value as a peacemaker—as a builder of GOP unity—once the ticket is chosen, leaving disappointed and disgruntled factions around the losers.

He underscores that the nominee will have to take the lead in that job, but he sees himself as a man who can do much to help.

"PICK UP PIECES"

Eisenhower wants to be in a position to pick up the pieces, as he puts it, after the convention—no matter who the winner or the loser.

The former president envisions a convention that will attract the interest of Republicans by a unit heal any lingering wounds, to arm the party for what he concedes will be an uphill fight against President Johnson in November.

He figures—as in his own case in 1952 and 1956—that the GOP ticket will have to attract 10 million independents and what he calls disenchanted Democrats if it is to oust Johnson and capture the White House.

EXPRESS VIEWS

The former president also is known to have expressed these views:

—His May 24 blueprint for party and its nominee—regarded by some as a stop-Goldwater statement—was no such thing. Eisenhower simply was attempting to spell out his convictions on the course the party should follow. He did so with no intention of ruling anyone in or out of the nomination.

—In a Gettysburg conference last Saturday, he counseled Scranton against rigidly insisting he would take the nomination only as a draftee. Scranton later indicated he would not be inflexible on this point.

—Eisenhower likes Scranton, admires his ability, and considers him a first-rate campaigner—but insists he has not been asked for nor given any specific endorsement of the governor as a potential nominee.

JOIN IN SEARCH FOR 2 BANDITS

State police today expressed their appreciation to Dr. Carroll Voss, Gettysburg R. D., who turned his Agrotors helicopters over to their service Tuesday afternoon in the search for two men who robbed the Morris Quality Jewelers store at the Camp Hill Shopping Center.

Police said that Dr. Voss provided use of his helicopters at police request when a search was conducted throughout Adams County for two men who stole a tray of diamond rings from a jewelry store and escaped in a convertible toward Gettysburg on Route 15.

State police fanned out over the county in cars, working together by radio. Sheriff Dawson Miller and his deputies were in four other radio cars. Gettysburg, Cumberland Twp., Littlestown and other police were also in on the search, also guided by radio, through the sheriff's network set up for the county peace officers. The helicopters hovered overhead searching throughout the county.

It was probably the largest armada of peace officers in action in the county simultaneously in years.

The search was started because the escape car turned toward Gettysburg but it was not known if they actually passed through the county. The local officers continued their search until 5 o'clock Tuesday evening then concluded their quarry was not in the county.

The theft occurred about 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning when two men walked into the jewelry store. One went to the rear of the store and engaged the attention of a clerk while looking for "an anniversary present." Meantime the other, in the front of the store, apparently leaned over a counter, opened a door, and removed the tray of diamond rings.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning from the Wilson Funeral Home, Fairfield, followed by a requiem Mass in St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Buchanan Valley, for Mrs. Francis X. Children's Day will be observed Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church. The Rev. Alfred Gotwalt is the pastor.

BRING EQUITY SUIT FOR RENT

Paul P. and Nellie Pennell, Chambersburg R. 2, have brought an equity action in Adams County court against LeRoy H. and Lois M. Bair, Littlestown R. 2, asking farm rent for 1963-64 and 1964-65.

According to the complaint filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorney H. Thomas Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. Pennell in September, 1959, owned a farm in Union Twp. which they leased to Mr. and Mrs. Bair. The original lease, on which the owner and tenant shared in profits of the farm, was terminated April 1, 1963, and an agreement was made for the Bairs to pay $2,500 per year in cash as rental for the farm, with the amount to be paid half in September and half in April each year. On May 23, 1963, Mr. and Mrs. Pennell sold the farm to LeRoy and Jacqueline L. Basehore who are to get possession April 1, 1965, and, according to the agreement with the new owners, the Pennells are to receive the rents up to the time the Basehore take possession.

In their equity action the Pennells ask an accounting under the shares agreement and claim $961 unpaid on the $2,500 per year rental agreement.

The action was one of two filed in the prothonotary's office. Ward Industries Corporation, New York, according to papers filed by Attorney Edward B. Buleit, entered an action of replevin against Bizzy Bee Cleaners, Inc., and Bernard Nickey, trading as Bizzy Bee Cleaners, Littlestown. The New York company filed an $18,000 bond to take possession of dry cleaning equipment, presses, etc., which they aver are worth "less than $9,000."

"IN LOVE WITH LIFE"

I love the earth on which I live . . . the fields and meadows too . . . the rolling hills that seem as steps . . . to God's eternal blue . . . I love the ocean with its waves . . . that wash a sandy shore . . . the driving rain that wets our land . . . lightning and thunder's roar . . . I love the mornings kissed with dew . . . a noon when sun is high . . . and eventide when all is still . . . with moon and starlit sky . . . I love the breeze that sings a song . . . so sweet and tenderly . . . the flowers of the summer-time . . . and winter wild and free . . . I love the grass and trees of spring . . . and autumn's tarnished gold . . . to me all these are wonderful . . . divine to have and hold . . . I love humanity and all . . . the fleeting joys and strife . . . to sum it up I have to say . . . I am in love with life.

New John Buford Comes To G-burg

John Buford returned to Gettysburg this week.

The John Buford visiting this time was a great-grandson of the Gen. John Buford who led Union cavalry into Gettysburg on the night of June 30, 1863, and by his deployment west of the town helped bring on the Battle of Gettysburg.

Lt. Col. Jacob M. Sheads and Samuel Kessel, both park ranger historians, learned he was from Dwight, Ill. When Buford gave his name in introducing himself, the two local men immediately inquired about his relationship to Gen. Buford. They learned Buford had already visited the area where his ancestor had fought, but they were able to give the present day Buford an answer he sought—the location of his great-grandfather's grave. The general is buried at West Point.

BOY, 9, DROWNS

The night's work deserves praise. The men did an excellent job. The corner officially set the time of death, by law, at the time the body was found, 4:35 o'clock this morning, but said the condition of the body indicated the drowning occurred, probably before 11:30 last night.

SIGHTED BODY

Officer Miller said Ronald Williams, E. Middle St. located the body a short distance southeast of the dam, "just about the time we were ready to give up searching the stream." Williams was one of several who had been diving through the night. He was in a boat from which "something white" was glimpsed in the about five-foot depth of water. He dove in and found the child's body at the bottom of the stream. Grappling hooks earlier had been pulled across the general area where the body was found and divers previously had searched within a few feet of the spot.

A student at the Gettysburg schools, the child attended Sunday School at Grace Baptist Church, Fairfield R. D. He is survived by his parents, Clarence A. and Ethel (Singly) Spriggs; these brothers and sisters, Carl, Joyce, Kay and Valerie, all at home, and his grandmothers, Mrs. Daisy Spriggs, Gettysburg R. 2, and Mrs. Clara Singly, Fairfield.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Wilson Funeral Home, Fairfield, with Rev. William Marshall officiating. Interment will be made in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home in Fairfield Friday evening after 7 o'clock.

County Officials Talk Vacations

The Adams County commissioners Tuesday discussed the question of possible vacation periods for "full time-part time" employees, such as the two men on the night shift at the Quick Call center. While the two work "one week on and one week off" through the year, both are regular employees and the commissioners raised the question of giving them a few days vacation. The matter will be discussed with borough officials since the borough is involved in the Quick Call operation and payments.

Bills totaling $1,916.32 were approved.

Tuesday afternoon the commissioners met at the WGET property to view with the Compiler Co. officials county land adjoining the radio station property which the radio company is considering buying from the county.

Totes Luggage And Gives Tips
To R.C.: Boy Scout William Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Snyder, Buford avenue, solved a Boy Scout problem today by turning over to the Adams county Red Cross 70 cents given him by delegates to the United Spanish War Veterans convention here.

Scout Snyder, on duty at the Hotel Gettysburg carried baggage for the veterans and did other odd work for them. They insisted on giving him tips and Scout Snyder insisted that according to Scout regulations, a Scout cannot accept tips for good turns. When it became embarrassing and the veterans kept insisting he take the tips, the Scout did so — then turned the money over to the Red Cross in order to keep within the Scouting regulations.

The local Red Cross also received another gift today, 34 cents, from two enterprising merchants, Ralph Jr., and Mary Baker, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker, Seminary avenue. The kiddies sold lemonade (supplies furnished by their mother) and turned the proceeds over to the Red Cross for kit bags.

LIMITATIONS

Everything within our knowledge has its own limitation—but it is good that we have never become wise enough to know our own limitation, as applied to the mind. We know that we can push the strength of our bodies only so far, and then we get a signal to slow up, or take a rest.

But this mind of ours seems to have no limits set upon it. Green, the English historian, had put upon his tombstone the line: "He died learning." And it was Montaigne who retired to his castle to study, meditate, and to inquire. Which he did until he died. The human species loves power, and it is this very thing that often tempts a man to go beyond safe limits, and often becomes the price of his defeat.

There is an old saying about a man "biting off more than he can chew." Ambition often becomes a cruel master. It tempts beyond the ability of one to go. And thereby comes the fall. Happy is that one who can sense his limitations and abide by the knowledge.

There are no spiritual limitations, however. There is no limit set upon the aspiration of the human soul. Nor to the extent to which the human mind may speculate. To fully appreciate the vastness of the universe, all that is necessary is to take a good look at the heavens on a clear night. Try to count those brilliant stars that you see! Bear in mind that most of them are millions and billions of miles away — and beyond them is still space of which we know nothing.

There seem to have been no limits set upon what the human mind might dream about! I am convinced that God meant that we should reach for Heaven.

In a free land there are no set limitations to which a man or woman may aspire. We have had Presidents "born with a silver spoon in the mouth," as the saying goes, and we have had Presidents who had to work the soil to get the spoon with which to feed themselves! No limitations are put upon a man in a free democracy under a republican form of government.

I always have rather liked that popular song where it said: "Don't fence me in!"

Just Folks

They dream so much of greatness.
Poor tired girls
Who dance for hours upon their weary toes,
They would make famous those false yellow curls
By pleasing people in the theater rows.

I watch them struggling for the throng's acclaim
And wish them well, but oh, their path is hard!
I pity them because the gate to fame
I know against the most of them is barred.

They keep their printed notices in books,
Spin dreams of splendor which are mostly vain;
Suffer great hardships for the crowd which looks,
And seek applause with weariness and pain.

And always as I see them dancing there,
Struggling for favor ere they grow too old,
I seem to see the failure and despair
That wait nearby to crush the dreams they hold.

The Gettysburg Summer Theater management announced this morning that its company is complete at five members. Joseph O'Sullivan, who arrived in Gettysburg on Sunday from New York City, and recently appeared in "Marathon 33" on Broadway and in "Six Characters in Search of an Author" which has been running off Broadway, brings up to five the number of professional actors in the local stock company.

The season will open in a new theater on the Biglerville Rd. The company includes apprentices, interested young people who want to gain some experience in the theater.

The season opens at 8:30 p.m. June 17. The program, extending until August 15, will include "Come Back Little Sheba," by William Inge; George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man"; John Osborne's "Look Back in Anger," and six others. NUMBER FOUR IS LUCKY FOR PHILLY SQUAD

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The number 4 proved to be a lucky one for the Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday night.

The Phillies moved up to within four percentage points of the San Francisco Giants' National League lead, scoring a 4-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates, with Chris Short pitching a four-hitter to do it. It was Short's fourth win of the season in seven decisions.

The big blow for the Phillies was a two-run homer by John Herrstein in the fourth inning.

HANDICUFFS PIRATES

It topped off a game Phils manager Gene Mauch said contained "good pitching and a lot of leather."

Short made good use of a well controlled changeup to handcuff the Pirates, mixing it well with his fast ball.

"I got six men out with it (the changeup)," he said after the game.

He walked only two men and struck out nine.

The "lot of leather" Mauch mentioned referred to fielding gems by Cookie Rojas, who started at shortstop for the first time in a major league game, and Tony Taylor, at second base.

Rojas, who moved out to left field later in the game, made a sparkling backhanded catch of a foul fly by Gene Freese near the railing of the leftfield boxes. He fell, recovered quickly and threw to second, chasing Roberto Clemente back to first.

"I slipped as I was getting ready to throw," Rojas said later. "I was on the warning path and when I tried to plant my feet for the throw, they slipped right out from under me on the stones."

He held the ball up just to prove he had it and then threw to second.

In another defensive gem, Taylor dove after a liner off the bat of Manny Mota and flipped it to Bobby Wine for an eighth-inning double play.

"When it was hit," he recalled, I thought it was going to go right by me. But I saw I had a chance. So I dove, hoping to knock it down. It felt good when it stuck in the fingers of my glove."

Herrstein's homer off loser Bob Friend was his first Philadelphia round-tripper.

"I needed something like that after that exhibition last (Tuesday) night," the rookie said. Tuesday night he had struck out three times, once with the bases loaded.

"I hope it's the start of something," he added.

PHILS SIGN TWO
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday signed shortstop Roger Curry of Columbus, Ohio, and right-handed pitcher Tony Lucadello of Covington, Va.

The players, both 18, were assigned to the Phillies Spartanburg farm club in the Class A Western Carolinas League.

Jim Fregosi, who once drove the team station wagon, has steered himself back to the top of the American League batting race.

Fregosi belted four hits and drove in six runs Wednesday night as Los Angeles downed Cleveland 7-4 in 11 innings. The Angels also won the second game of the doubleheader 5-3.

The 22-year-old shortstop's driving experience came while he played for Alpine, Tex., in the Sophomore League. Eight team members traveled in a station wagon, the other 12 in a rented limousine.

To avoid getting leg cramps while sitting in the back, Fregosi volunteered to drive the station wagon.

He might have escaped leg trouble then, but he hasn't this season. He pulled a leg muscle against New York May 23 and missed the next 15 games except for seven pinch-hitting appearances.

Since returning to the line-up full time last Sunday, Fregosi has lashed 10 hits in 19 at bats. His performance Wednesday night raised his average 15 points to .362, tying him with Minnesota's Tony Oliva for the league lead.

Fregosi's hitting has stood out this season for the Angels, who are wallowing in ninth place, 13½ games out of first.

Fregosi never has hit .300 in his four-year baseball career. Since coming to the Angels from Boston for $75,000 in the expansion draft, he has a major league average of .286.

He led AL batters early this season but soon fell behind the red-hot Oliva. The Twins' rookie, however, went hitless in four times at bat as Detroit nipped Minnesota 5-4 Wednesday night.

In other games, Chicago edged Baltimore 2-1, New York outslugged Boston 10-6 after losing 7-6 in 10 innings and Washington stopped Kansas City 3-1.

GET UNEARNED RUNS

Fregosi doubled home two runs in the Angels' 11th in the opener. The tie-breaking run scored on Sonny Siebert's walk to Tom Satriano. Fregosi belted a run-scoring double in the fourth, then slammed a three-run homer the next inning. He had a bunt single in the eighth.

The Angels sewed up the nightcap with four unearned runs in the fourth. After shortstop Dick Howser threw wildly on Lou Clinton's grounder, Bob Perry drove in two runs with a single and Satriano doubled home another pair. Vic Davallino knocked in two Cleveland runs with a double in the first and a single in the third.

The White Sox won their 12th game in the last 16 with the aid of catcher's interference by Baltimore's Dick Brown in the fourth. Pete Ward was given first base on the interference call. Floyd Robinson, who had singled, then scored from second on Ron Hansen's single.

HOMER BY MARIS

Roger Maris smashed a three-run homer, Tom Tresh a two-run blow and Tony Kubek a solo blast in the Yankees' second-game triumph.

Home runs by Tony Conigliaro and Dick Williams gave the Red Sox the opening victory. Phil Linz had put New York into a 6-5 lead in their half of the 10th with a run-scoring single.

Bob Allison drove in three runs for the Twins with a third-inning double and a two-run homer in the eighth. But Mike Roarke's run-producing single in the seventh proved to be the winning tally for the Tigers.

Wayne Causey contributed three errors to the Senators' attack. Washington scored in the second after a throwing error by the Athletics' shortstop and added two runs in the seventh with the help of his third error.

GOODLING WINNER

Gene Goodling, Stoverstown, grabbed an early lead in the Lions' Club 25-lap sportsman-modified feature event to win the Lincoln Speedway Wednesday night.

Frankie Thompson, Johnny Roberts, Pee Wee Poblitos, Bob Ballantine and Pete Kantorsky followed the track champion to the wire.

Gene Saine captured the 20-lap late model feature. Jim Garrett, Bob Myers, Butch Devillbiss and Dick Snare followed to the wire.

A homerun by Dennis Eberhart in the bottom of the seventh inning gave the Soldiers a thrilling 7-5 win over the Rifles Wednesday evening.

After the Rifles scored four times in the top of the seventh to take a 5-4 edge, the Soldiers fought back strongly. With one out and two men on base, Eberhart poked a long ball to deep center field for his game-winning blow.

Eberhart also tripled during the game as he and Clinton Llauguet paced the winners with a trio of safeties. Ed Demento recorded the same number of blows to pace the Rifles.

The Exchange Club moved into fifth place Wednesday evening by defeating the Phillips 66 outfit 8-4, the losers dropping into the cellar.

Fazenbaker's double with the bases loaded highlighted a four-run second inning for the Exchange which carried the team to victory. Fazenbaker also rapped a single and another double for three safeties.

Flynn and Martin each smacked a pair of hits for Phillips.

The Home Association moved into a tie for first place Wednesday evening by defeating the Flying A 11-9.

A grand slam home run by Wayne Storm in the bottom of the third inning when the winners tallied six earned runs was the key blow for the Home Association.

In the top of the fourth the Flying A tied the score at 9-9 on a walk, two singles and a pair of errors but the Home outfit pushed over two runs in the last of the fifth to take the decision.

Gettysburg Little League

Scoring quickly in the first two innings and pounding out 12 hits, the Moose pulled the Rotary out of the ranks of the undefeated by walking off with an 8-5 verdict Wednesday evening.

Blasting five hits including doubles by Steven Williams and Mark Bergdale, the Moose tallied four times in the first inning. The victors came back with three more runs in the bottom of the second on four more singles and a sacrifice fly by Carl Swinn.

The final Moose score came in the fourth on Lee McCann's solo homer, his second of the year.

The Rotary attempted a comeback in the third when Tim Bowling singled, Dave McDermitt walked and Jim Flynn doubled scoring both runners. Flynn tallied on a passed ball for the third run, but relief hurler Swinn put out the fire and preserved the Moose win.

Lee McCann paced the winners with a trio of hits for the same number of at bats. Tim Bowling went two for three for the Rotary. Dave Nagle started for the Moose, but needed help from Carl Swinn. Swinn receives the win since Nagle did not go the required distance. Jim Flynn started for the Rotary and is charged with the loss. Jeff Crushong came on to help in the fourth.

Special Committee Works On Public Utilities Law; House, Senate At Odds

HARRISBURG (AP)—A special committee took over Wednesday the task of resolving differences between the House and Senate on Gov. Scranton's proposal for reforming land condemnation laws.

The crux of the problem is whether public utilities should be included in the reclassification of laws which permit public agencies to seize private property.

The House wrote the utilities in the law; the Senate struck them out, and neither would yield. So three House members and three senators were appointed to a conference committee to settle it.

A tentative agreement was reached Tuesday by other conferees on the billion dollar general appropriation bill which will provide most of the money for operating the government in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

DECLINE DETAILS

The six committee members declined, however, to disclose details of the agreement and said they would not sign a final report until next Monday.

"We made some progress, but we are not firm yet," said Chairman Blaine C. Hocker of the House Appropriations Committee, one of the conferees.

He indicated that some cuts were made in the $2.7 million added by the Senate to the House version of the bill.

The House already had tacked on $2.3 million to the $1.067 billion originally requested by Gov. Scranton.

GO TO RACES

Both houses cleaned up some business Tuesday in their rush for final adjournment of the 1964 session, now expected some time late next week.

The two chambers adjourned early to permit members to go to the Liberty Bell harness race track in Philadelphia Tuesday night as guests of the William Penn Racing Association.

Other developments Tuesday: Mines — The Senate passed, 48-1, and returned to the House for agreement on amendments, a proposed $500,000 appropriation for coal and acid mine drainage research.

BORROWING

Borrowing — The Senate approved, 30-6, and sent to the House a constitutional amendment to broaden the borrowing authority of the commonwealth and to abolish the General State Authority.

Tax Compensation — Chairman Stanley G. Stroup of the Senate local government committee formally pronounced the death sentence on a House-passed bill to compensate communities for the loss of tax revenue because of state property located within their boundaries.

Constitutional Amendments — The House first defeated, then agreed to reconsider, a constitutional amendment to require magistrates, justices of the peace and aldermen to attend a three-month training school.

TWO REJECTIONS

The House resoundingly defeated, 68-120, an administration proposal to make it possible to amend the constitution within 31 days, in some cases. It also rejected an administration bill to provide four-year terms for House members and to permit consideration of general legislation every year.

The House did accept, however a proposal to change the constitutional requirements on public office oaths in very minor ways.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

TO DEFLATE THE WAIST. A roll of flesh around the waistline is usually attributed to overweight. But it is not necessarily so. Although your weight is normal, lack of exercise can cause your waist measurement to thicken.

Naturally measurements take on blimp proportions if you are both overweight and underexercised. Then, to achieve neat curves, you have to combine exercise and diet.

Otherwise a daily workout turns the trick. Either way the following routine acts to trim and hold the line:

1. On floor, lie on back with feet together and arms stretched over head. At the same time, raise right right leg and left arm; keeping knee straight, try to touch left hand to right instep. Return to starting position and repeat with left leg and right hand. Alternating sides, perform 10 to 20 times. (The action firms the flesh.)

2. Standing, pull up tall and grasp the waist at either side between thumb and forefinger. Without moving fingers, draw in waist. Then estimate how much air space there is between curve of waist and that formed by fingers. Repeat 10 times, always trying to increase air space. (Idea here is to strengthen the muscles that let the flesh spill over.)

Faithful work whittles away about two inches a month. After the job is done, to keep the waist in shape use the same routines but halve the count.

WAYNESBORO, Pa. (AP)—Pickets from Maryland where a food store strike has been in progress since April 17 appeared Wednesday at Acme supermarkets in Waynesboro and Greencastle, Pa.

In Southeast Asia, the diplomatic jungle is often as dense as the real one.

Through it dimly can be seen recurrent crises, and the only thing that seems certain is that one crisis will follow another, for a long time to come.

There is, of course, real war and real dying. The scale, for those who lived through two world wars, is minute. But what frightens the world is the sight of great powers — the Soviet Union, Red China and the United States — hovering around the edges of the conflict, all able, indeed pledged, to commit powerful forces if one side goes too far.

FEAR RED CHINA

Of the three protagonists, the most to be feared is Red China. The Soviet Union, for once, is playing an equivocal role. Khrushchev, having renounced nuclear war, for the obvious reason that the United States can also play that game, is in the peculiar position of wishing to stir up trouble wherever possible, but yet having to appear less belligerent than Communist China.

This is causing him loss of face in Hanoi, headquarters for the Communist drive against South Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia. Ho Chi Minh, the bearded old revolutionary leader in North Viet Nam, was schooled in Moscow. When needing help, he used to knock first on that door. Now he looks to Peiping because the Red Chinese have seized from the Russians the banner of violent revolution.

FIGHTING BY PROXY

Mao Tze-tung, who may have gotten a bellyful in Korea, is fighting this war by proxy, and his proxy is Ho Chi Minh. No Red Chinese forces have been found in South Viet Nam or Laos, but Ho is well-supplied with Chinese, Russian and Czech arms. He has about 250,000 men in his People's Army, but his strongest arm is the guerrillas. In South Viet Nam they are called Viet Cong, and in Laos the Pathet Lao. The hard-core men in both these forces were trained in North Viet Nam. Together with volunteers, the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam is estimated at more than 100,000. They control perhaps two-thirds of the country, including the virtual suburbs of Saigon.

In northern Laos, the Pathet Lao alternately advances and recedes, ever threatening and yet never quite bringing down the shaky government of Laos.

In Cambodia, Prince Norodom Sihanouk has already surrendered, at least symbolically. He still rules his country, but he has cast off his friendship with the United States. He is sure that Mao will eventually win the struggle in Asia, and he wants to be on the winning side. He helps Mao where he can, by letting the Viet Cong take sanctuary behind his border with South Viet Nam, and by charging South Viet Nam and the United States with border incursions when they chase the Viet Cong. Such charges come easy along a frontier so badly marked that nobody knows where the line is. And when the prince makes charges, Khrushchev and Mao applaud him, with Mao making the louder noise.

THE FRENCH SLANT

Mao is busy elsewhere, too. He is making threatening noises and gestures along his long border with India, and is not averse to growling at Khrushchev where their claims conflict in the wilds of Sinkiang.

Battleground--Southeast Asia

Along the great arc of the South China Sea, where Indonesia and Malaysia come together on the island of Borneo, President Sukarno vows that the Indonesians will crush the British, who stand behind the new state. Khrushchev is in the stands, cheering him on. Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman summons 12,000 more men to the Malaysian colors and then goes to consult his astrologer. The seer tells him the present crisis will continue for 18 months. That certainly seems a safe bet.

FRENCH DRESSING

Into this boiling pot, stir a little French dressing. The French, openly wooing Cambodia, suggested that Laos, Cambodia and South Viet Nam should be "neutralized." To some, this brings to mind the posters in the streets of Saigon: "Red Plan — First Neutralize, then Communize." Some even suggest the French were rather hoping the United States would fail in Southeast Asia, as the French had done.

The United States had other ideas. From President Johnson down the policy was firm: Stand fast in Southeast Asia, with whatever it takes.

House Okays Project 70; See Adjournment In Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Cutting deeply into the remaining work load, the General Assembly today aimed for final adjournment by next Wednesday.

Two giant steps were taken Wednesday as a House committee gave its approval to the Project 70 program and a House Senate conference committee reached agreement on the proposal to reform land condemnation laws.

Both chambers planned brief sessions today to advance bills to a point where final votes may be taken by next Monday or Tuesday.

"GROSS OMISSIONS"

While cleaning up some minor details Wednesday, the House Democratic minority revived memories of the stormy passage of Gov. Scranton's unemployment compensation reform program last March 20.

Minority Leader Anthony J. Petrosky and Rep. Harry Kramer, D-Allegheny, charged the Republican majority with alerting the official record of the proceedings that night when only two Democrats and two Republicans voted against the bill.

"There were gross omissions of references damning to the conduct of the House on that date," said Petrosky.

DEFENDS RECORD

Kramer failed in a motion to reopen the journal for March 20 so that he could be recorded as voting against the U.C. bill.

House Speaker W. Stuart Helm, who moved off the speakers rostrum to answer the mild Democratic attack, insisted his handling was proper.

Most of the Democrats had moved to the rear of the chamber, although some tried to gain recognition as the Republican majority shut off lengthy debate and rolled the bill to a vote.

PROGRESS IN CONFERENCE

The conference committee on the eminent domain land condemnation bill accepted most of the House provisions, compromising only on public utilities. The committee agreed that the utilities would be subject only to the damage provisions of the act.

House and Senate conferees spent more time working on differences in the billion dollar general appropriation bill, but no final agreement is expected before Monday.

NO ADMISSION CHARGE

The House Game and Conservation Committee wrote several major changes into the Senate version of the Project 70 bill before sending it to the floor.

The committee defeated an attempt to give the secretary of forests and water discretionary power to charge admissions to state facilities. The current secretary, Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, has said he does not favor admission charges.

The principal change made by the committee affects state payments to municipalities to offset tax revenue losses by the acquisition of private land for public use.

As passed by the Senate, the bill would have provided payments to municipalities until such time as the assessed value of the area returned to the level prior to the acquisition.

PAY TAX LOSS

The House version provides that the state would pay annually the actual tax loss to a political subdivision until the acquired land is formally opened for public use. Additional payments would be spread along a descending scale until the market value of the subdivision rises to the level it reached a year prior to the acquisition.

Committee Chairman Ray Goodrich, R-Potter, said the change would prevent local authorities from juggling assessments to continue the offset payments over long periods.

The House Committee also provided for mandatory public hearings before the commonwealth acquires land under the program. The hearings would not be binding, being designed to acquaint residents with the state's plans.

RESPONSIBILITY NOT FIXED

Another change would permit the local authorities to request relocation of roads in involved projects, but would give the final authority to the state Highways Department. The Senate version said only that roads should be relocated "if feasible," but it did not fix responsibility for a decision.

The House version would add the secretary of agriculture to the state planning board only for the purpose of ruling on land acquisition under the program.

The measure would implement the $70 million bond issue approved by the voters last fall for acquisition of land for recreational and conservation purposes.

Of the $70 million, $40 million will be set aside for acquisitions by the Forests and Waters Department, $5 million each for the Fish and Game Commission and $20 million for state aid to local municipalities in acquiring land for public uses.

SENATE READY TO ACT UPON LAND MEASURE

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Senate is set for final action next week on the Scranton administration's proposed land condemnation reform bill.

A joint House-Senate conference committee reached agreement Wednesday on major differences between each chamber's version of the measure.

The bill, aimed at codifying state laws which permit public agencies to seize private property for public use, was turned over to conference committee when the House refused to concur in Senate revisions.

"IN BETTER SHAPE"

But Sen. William Z. Scott, R-Carbon, chairman of the Senate Judiciary General Committee and a member of the conference force, said the bill now is "in better shape than ever."

"Our report should be presented to the House and Senate for a final vote Monday," Scott said.

Rep. Herbert Fineman, D-Philadelphia, a principal sponsor of the so-called eminent domain program, agreed with Scott that the bill is "a giant step forward in curing many of the inequities that have befallen property owners and businesses who face the bulldozer."

COMPROMISE CAME

The major compromise came on the question of whether utility companies should be included in the bill. The House included utilities at the insistence of Fineman, but the Senate struck them out.

The committee decided to make utilities subject to all provisions of the bill when taking over ownership of property, but to exempt them in cases of easement or rights-of-way where ownership remains unchanged.

The administration program is aimed at eliminating long waiting periods for payment to land owners whose property has been taken over by the state or local government agencies.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It would require payment of the total estimated value of property within 60 days after filing notice of condemnation. Present practices sometimes result in delays of years before an owner is paid.

The conference committee also deleted a 50-mile limitation on moving costs to be paid by the state to dispossessed property owners. Instead, Scott said, the bill provides up to $500 for residential owners and $25,000

Boat Capsizes; Amputee Drowns

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Anthony Magerko, a young amputee who was attending the Williamsport Technical Institute, drowned in the Susquehanna River Wednesday when a boat in which he was riding capsized.

Magerko, 20, of New Salem, Fayette County, was thrown into the water with another student, David Bright, 21, of Shenandoah. Bright was rescued after making vain attempts to save his companion.

Magerko's body was recovered in 12 feet of water about 30 minutes after the mishap.

Dr. Earl R. Miller, Lycoming County coroner, said the victim's right leg had been amputated at the knee.

PLAN TO TRAIN ALDERMEN IS UP IN SENATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposed constitutional amendment to send justices of the peace, aldermen and magistrates to school is before the Senate after winning in a second chamber vote.

The House approved the bill Wednesday 123-45 after defeating the measure on Tuesday. But it still requires approval of the Senate, the 1965 legislature and the voters in a referendum.

The measure would provide three months of training in approved courses for persons elected to the minor judiciary after the amendment becomes part of the constitution.

REJECT PROPOSAL

In other action, the House rejected still another recommendation of the governor's commission on constitutional revision.

A proposed amendment to make various changes in the executive branch of government was defeated 98-78, having failed to receive the necessary 106 yes votes.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

The House also adopted a number of resolutions that:

—Ask the governor to appoint a committee to study the milk industry.

—Direct the Joint State Government Commission to study the possibility of establishing state universities in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, investigate auto insurance companies, study juvenile crime problems, look into various motor vehicle braking systems, determine whether the sanitary water board is properly enforcing clean streams laws, and make an over-all study of the state college system.

ACCELERATED MEDICAL PLAN WORKING WELL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Officials of Jefferson Medical College are "extremely gratified" with the progress of an accelerated medical program which enables students to earn their degrees in five years rather than the usual eight.

Jefferson is cooperating with Pennsylvania State University in the program which currently has 29 students.

Dean William A. Sodeman of Jefferson said the studies are proving successful. His opinion was confirmed by Dr. Thomas for business and industry. The original dollar limit for residential moving was $200, but the committee raised it by $300.

Efforts to reduce the accelerated payment to 80 per cent of the estimated value were rejected by the committee.

AGREE ON EXEMPTION

But the conferees did agree to exempt state agencies such as the Highways Department from paying the original value of land affected by subsidence and mine cave-ins.

Under the new proposal, only the federal government would pay pre-subsidence values on land taken over for urban renewal or redevelopment.

"Subjecting state agencies to this provision would cost more than $3 million a year in highways expenditures alone," Scott said.

The federal government already has agreed to the pre-subsidence feature.

Moscow Is City Of Flowers For 6.4 Million Residents

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
MOSCOW (AP) — Vegetable plants are coming up in the window boxes of apartment buildings that house most of Moscow's 6.4 million residents.

Flowers are growing gaily in the many parks that dot Moscow. In the gardens under the Kremlin walls and inside the Kremlin, tulips have been blooming. Yellow wildflowers mingle with the grass.

It is a lush growth, this sudden burst of foliage in the brief northern summer. Trees transpire most of the year turn overnight into dense canopies of green.

LUSH GRASS

Grass along the wide boulevards is more than lush—it is unkempt in most places.

The city devotes much effort to keeping streets and walks clear of snow during the long winter. Men and, predominantly, women are out shoveling.

Some of them, including the women, dig ditches in the summer. Few are deployed with lawn mowers.

If the city does not cut the grass, no one does. Living in apartment houses is not conducive to taking pride in a well-kept yard.

That is one of the problems of the Soviet Union. Collective ownership leads to a lack of personal interest. The country cousins of Moscow residents produce an estimated half of the national agricultural value on the 3.3 per cent of farmed land that is private kitchen plots. All the collective and state farms supply only half.

SUPPLIES ADEQUATE

Food supplies for the capital are adequate, even if the private market has to be searched for things unavailable in state stores. As with so many things, waiting in line is a frequent experience in buying food.

Many get to work by subway, too many. The subway system is a showpiece for tourists and state visitors. They are taken during the slack hours to see the magnificent murals and mosaics deep underground.

During the rush hours people are packed so tightly into the inadequate entrances and exits they ignore the murals and mosaics.

CITY'S GROWTH RINGS

The city has growth rings, like a tree.

Apartment houses in the center are solidly built of stone. A bit farther out are brick buildings that look, both inside and out, at least twice as old as they are. The newest growth ring, marching across the fields and into the birch forests, is composed of prefabricated cated apartment buildings.

A tremendous desire for more housing remains, however, since the last decade's construction represents most of the additional housing since Moscow's population was 4.14 million in 1939.

WAISTLINE BIG ISSUE IN TITLE FIGHT

By ROBERT MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Pre-fight verbal skirmishes between the camps of welterweight champion Emile Griffith and challenger Luis Rodriguez on the eve of their title match here reached an intriguing level.

Perhaps indelicately, but dead seriously, the issue concerns the level of the navel.

Angelo Dundee, Rodriguez' handler, appeared before the Nevada boxing commission Wednesday and bluntly charged that Griffith wears his trunks too high.

SCREAMS FOUL

"Every time he gets hit legitimately at the waistline, he screams foul because he wears his waistline up around his armpits," Dundee declared, taking some liberties with the truth.

Griffith also rolls the top of his trunks over the wide belt of his protective cup, which further adds to the high rise, said Dundee, adding: "It would take a search warrant to locate Griffith's belly button."

Retorted Gil Clancy, Griffith's co-manager: "Maybe we could paint a new belly button on Emile. Up higher, of course." Still in serious vein, Dundee demanded that the commission order a personal check of the matter and the Griffith people quickly requested the same examination be made of Rodriguez' fighting gear.

Ask Protection Of Mushroom Industry

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House called on Congress Wednesday for an increase in tariffs to protect the nation's sagging mushroom industry from low-priced imports.

The proposal was sponsored by representatives of Chester County, one of the capitals of the mushroom industry. A similar resolution was adopted in the Senate Monday.

Mrs. Johnson To Receive Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson flies to Philadelphia late today to receive an award from the Golden Slipper Square Club there for her humanitarian activities.

The club is an affiliate of the National League of Masons and is devoted to charity and philanthropy.

The First Lady will be honored at a dinner dance of the organization, one of the largest in the national league with a membership of more than 1,500 business and professional men. The White House said Mrs. Johnson will fly by commercial plane to Philadelphia, arriving there about 4:30 p.m. EDT.

SUE RAILROAD FOR INJURIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Three suits are pending in Dauphin County Court seeking damages for injuries allegedly suffered in a 1962 train wreck in which 19 persons lost their lives.

The suits, filed Wednesday by attorney Solomon Hurwitz, were brought against the Pennsylvania Railroad by Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Otstot, both of Mechanicsburg R. 3, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lee Zelders, Harrisburg.

The wreck occurred in neighboring Steelton on July 28, 1962. The train was on a special run, taking its passengers to a baseball game in Philadelphia, when it derailed with some of the cars plunging into the Susquehanna River.

The Dyer suit alleged that Mrs. Dyer, 53, lost her left hand as a result of the wreck. The other two complaints contended that Mrs. Otstot, 22, and Mrs. Zelders, 59, were unable to continue in their occupations as stenographers because of injuries suffered.

The suits asked for no specific sums for damages.

There was no rush of traffic through the Northwest Passage pioneered by Roald Amundsen in 1908. The next vessel to complete the passage was the Canadian icebreaker Labrador, in 1954.

BALL REPORTS U. S. CONCERN TO TURK HEADS

By HAL McCLURE

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—U.S. Undersecretary of State George W. Ball told Turkish officials today of President Johnson's concern over the mounting Cyprus crisis after delivering a similar message in Athens.

Ball told newsmen on his arrival in Ankara Wednesday night he had brought no solution to the Cyprus dispute, which threatens to touch off a war between Greece and Turkey, both members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

He said Johnson had sent him to learn the views of the Turkish government, accused by the Greek and Cypriot governments of preparing to invade the Mediterranean island off Turkey's south coast.

He said Johnson had sent him to learn the views of the Turkish government, accused by the Greek and Cypriot governments of preparing to invade the Mediterranean island off Turkey's south coast.

Greek Premier George Papandreu said after his talk with Ball that he had warned of the consequences of any Turkish invasion.

SEEK PEACE
"Our target is a peaceful solution and we endeavor to maintain peace," Papandreu said he told Ball.

American sources said the Greeks, alarmed at the prospect of war with the more powerfully armed Turks, had asked the United States to send over a high official.

Ball also carried word that the United States was concerned over reports that President Makarios of Cyprus might seek Soviet arms to fight any Turkish invasion.

ASKS U.N. INFLUENCE
Makarios fired off messages to all United Nations members Wednesday asking them to use their influence to stop what he said were continuing Turkish threats.

The Greek Cypriot archbishop charged that Turkey had mobilized "great numbers of naval, land and air forces ready for an invasion of Cyprus."

A Foreign Office spokesman in Ankara denied that it plans military intervention in Cyprus. He said the Turks have taken only normal security precautions.

MOTHER KILLED

MONTOURVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Moyer, 23-year-old mother of three from Montourville, was killed in a one-car accident Wednesday night at Loyalsockville, five miles north of here. Authorities said the woman's car ran off Route 87 and crashed into a tree. She died at Williamsport Hospital an hour and a half after the mishap.

Pidgin English started in ports of the South China Sea in the 17th Century. Traders got along with simple English words and Chinese syntax. The Chinese shopkeepers called it "business English" but their pronunciation came out "pidgin."

Teen-ager Killed In Crash On Bridge

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)—A car struck a bridge railing on Route 225 Wednesday, injuring two teen-agers, one fatally.

John Dunn, 17, of Shamokin, died of injuries received in the accident two miles west of nearby Dornisfe.

Patrick Rutkoskie, 18, also of Shamokin, identified by state police as the driver, was listed in fair condition at Shamokin State Hospital.

FEELS 'SKINS ARE SOLID NOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trader Bill McPeak, rebuilding his Washington Redskins under a "win or else" ultimatum, has all but shut up shop after swinging a deal for a much-needed pass receiver and a veteran defensive lineman.

The trade Tuesday brought end Angelo Coia and defensive tackle Fred Williams to Washington from the Chicago Bears in exchange for the Redskins' No. 1 draft choice next fall.

McPeak, who was told when he was signed for 1964 to produce a winner or he wouldn't be back for 1965, now has traded away four of the first 10 Redskins choices in the National Football League draft next fall.

He also has traded away some mighty familiar faces—quarterback Norman Snead, defensive end Andy Stynchula and half-back Dick James.

The Redskin coach-general manager told a news conference that the addition of Coia and Williams makes every position "pretty solid" for next fall. He added, "We don't have any glaring weakness."

Each crabgrass plant carries 50,000 seeds.

Continue Search For 35 Lost In Montana's Worst Disaster

By JACK ZYGMOND
HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Flood-torn Montana took on aspects of a zone of war today as government and business leaders directed multimillion-dollar rebuilding projects and authorities searched for dead and missing.

As floodwaters receded, officials in various search centers reported at least 30 persons dead.

Many of the more than 35 persons listed as missing were believed to be dead. Authorities said some bodies may be buried under tons of silt and rock.

STATE'S WEST TRAGEDY

Gov. Tim Babcock, who made an aerial inspection of the stricken area, called it the worst thing that has ever happened to the state.

"We can't begin to estimate the damage," he said. "It will run into tens of millions of dollars. Sections of highway as long as 20 miles have been destroyed by floodwaters."

Highway crews already have created temporary roads of mud and rock and set up makeshift bridges.

TOWNS ISOLATED

Many small towns were cut off from food and medical supplies. Supply-laden U.S. Air Force planes, including C123 transports, landed on grass and gravel runways and even open stretches of highway.

In the tiny reservation community of Heart Butte, where a number of persons were reported injured, a nurse was in charge of medical treatments. She received instructions by short-wave radio from a physician.

PLANES DROP FOOD

Thousands of pounds of food and medical supplies were airlifted into flood-battered communities. The largest of these was Choteau, a town of 2,000 made an island by the flood.

Communications to Choteau were out until Wednesday when The Associated Press was able to reach Mrs. D. P. Fabrick by telephone.

"So far everyone is safe but there is still plenty of trouble here," she said.

RESCUE TOURISTS

Mrs. Fabrick said the town was supposed to have been evacuated by helicopter due to sewer and water system failure. However, she said the Air Force later decided it would be unable to bring out all of the town's residents. A group of tourists stranded in Choteau were taken out Wednesday.

The massive floods started Monday on both sides of the Continental Divide after days of heavy rains and the sudden melting of a huge mountain snowpack.

Federal aid began pouring into the nine hardest-hit counties, in northwestern and west-central Montana, declared a disaster area by President Johnson.

The Red Cross operated 11 shelters around the flood area, housing and feeding more than 4,000 refugees.

MODEL GOVERNMENT

Rotary President Rev. Robert MacAskill said career conferences are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the camp week at which leading industrialists, bankers, professional people, and other leaders in various businesses will speak with those youths interested in their particular specialties. The camp is operated by the Rotary District as a part of the "vocational service" program of the various Rotary Clubs comprising the district.

As part of the leadership program, the youths set up model governments, and in addition carry on a full camp program during the five-day session.

The committee in charge of the camp is drawn from the various Rotary Clubs throughout the district.

Display Paintings In Waynesboro

The Waynesboro Studio Club will sponsor its 13th annual clothesline exhibition of original paintings Sunday in the Center Square from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. In the event of rain, the exhibition will be held June 20.

Artists within a 50-mile radius will enter more than 150 pieces of art for competition. Each artist is permitted to submit five pieces of paintings, sculpture, ceramics or crafts. Entries will be submitted Friday afternoon from 1 to 6 o'clock at the Community Room of the Citizens National Bank where the jury will make its awards prior to the opening of the outdoor exhibition Saturday. Nine awards will be given. Painting demonstrations will be presented by members of the Studio Club, and an etching by Terry Mitchell will be awarded as a door prize.

Several Adams County artists are expected to participate.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the GALAXON plan. You must lose up to 100 pounds. One of the basic problems of losing weight is your inability to stick to a planned diet. The GALAXON plan contains a tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take GALAXON, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because GALAXON depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course GALAXON can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight, GALAXON can be a powerful helper. The GALAXON plan costs $1.00 and is sold on this guarantee: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. The GALAXON plan is sold with this guarantee by:

BOY, 12, FAILS FIFTH GRADE; HAS IQ OF 200

TITUSVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Billy Green, aged 12 and a fifth grade failure, next week will try college. Educators think he may do better.

Tests convinced the educators that Billy has the mental capability of a college freshman and reading ability perhaps a little superior. His IQ was 200. The genius rating begins at 140.

Monday Billy begins a six-week freshman course called "Physical Science Survey" at Brevard Junior College.

If Billy makes the grade without difficulty, he'll be encouraged to buckle down to a program of courses that could earn him a degree, a college spokesman said.

Billy's principal at Harbor City Elementary School, in Eau Gallie, said the boy reads volumes of serious books and can square two-digit numbers in his head but is failing the fifth grade, apparently because it bores him.

"The work he is expected to do in the fifth grade is comparable to asking an adult mathematician to play with dolls," said Principal Woodrow J. Darden.

Billy's interview with Brevard Junior College educators resulted from an impression he made on Dr. T. C. Helvey, a University of Florida biophysicist, at a panel on science. The boy kept giving right answers from the audience, Helvey said. The biophysicist learned about Billy's difficulties in school and interested college educators in him.

Educators said Billy's interest in science has been nourished by material supplied to him by his father, William, who is a Boeing aircraft engineer at Cape Kennedy. The family also has encouraged the boy to read educational books and biographies of world figures.

First Lady Will Receive Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson flies to Philadelphia today to receive an award from the Golden Slipper Square Club for her humanitarian activities.

The club, an affiliate of the National League of Masons, is devoted to charity and philanthropy.

The First Lady will be honored at a dinner dance by the organization of 1,500 business and professional men.

The White House said Mrs. Johnson will fly by commercial plane to Philadelphia, arriving about 4:30 p.m.

Kiowa Relatives Search For Grave

HOBBART, Okla. (AP) — Descendants of Chief Big Bow, a fierce old Kiowa Indian warrior buried in 1901, and others gathered Wednesday about what they thought was the grave of the ex-Army scout in a planned brief ceremony.

His remains were to have been transferred to Ft. Sill for military rites.

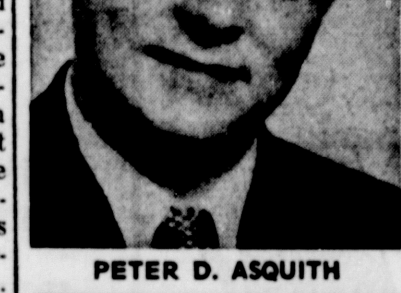

Diggers, however, could not locate the grave on the farm land, even though they looked in 50 places while the crowd waited.

The search resumed today.

CBS DISCUSSES QUESTION OF SALE OF GUNS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The assassination of President John F. Kennedy with a mail-order gun focused attention on a serious and controversial law enforcement problem. Death-dealing weapons, from hand pistols to bazookas and even antitank guns are available by mail order or over the counter to almost anyone who can afford to pay for them — citizens who need self-protection as well as criminals, lunatics and even children.

"CBS Reports" undertook Wednesday night to examine both sides of the subject.

LEGAL IN ARIZONA

The program demonstrated how a man released from a Kansas prison walked into a "liquor and sporting goods" store in Arizona and bought a gun under an assumed name and later killed two Los Angeles police officers with the weapon.

The sale was legal in Arizona, as it is in several other states.

Americans love guns, perhaps because of our frontier traditions. There are even 200,000 members of "quick draw clubs" using real guns and wax bullets.

GIVE NRA POSITION

The position of representatives of the National Rifle Association, representing over 600,000 hunters and shooting enthusiasts, was explored. While deploring sales to convicted felons, persons with a history of mental disease or children, it maintains that citizens have a right to own firearms for self protection, including the prevention of tyranny.

Police authorities pointed out the tremendous lack of uniformity in state and local gun laws, and James Bennett, director of federal prisons, said, "We're the only civilized country with no effective restrictions on gun sales."

The hour program was intelligent, well-organized and provocative.

KICK OFF NEW SEASON

The last "Garry Moore Show" next week will have Carol Burnett, Alan King, Marion Lorne and Allen Funt, all show regulars at one time or another, as guest stars.

Steve Allen arrives in New York next week to tape his first "I've Got a Secret" show, in

1,000 STATE CARS BOLSTER PA. SAFETY

POCONO MANOR, Pa. (AP)—About 1,000 state-owned cars will be marked and used to augment Gov. Scranton's safety program beginning July 1, Harry H. Brainerd, director of Pennsylvania's bureau of traffic safety said Wednesday.

Speaking to the 58th annual meeting of AAA, Pennsylvania Motor Federation, Brainerd said the cars will be driven by state employees on routine business. The drivers will not operate as a punitive arm or policing agency, he emphasized.

"Pennsylvania Bureau of Traffic Safety" will be imprinted in blue and gold letters on the sides of each car, and there will be the Keystone State insignia.

The cars will not be sent on patrol, Brainerd said, but would be on the highway only in the normal course of the employees' routine business.

The safety director said each driver will be carefully selected and trained and will watch for unsafe driving practices and flagrant traffic violations. They will then report the license numbers of the offending vehicles to Brainerd who will send a letter to the owner of the vehicle urging him to observe safe driving practices.

Take Testimony On Challenges

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—The Lackawanna county board of election completed hearing testimony Wednesday on some 422 challenged absentee ballots cast in the April 28 primary for the Democratic senatorial nomination. The board said it probably will make decisions on individual ballots next week.

Genevieve Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, has a statewide lead of 636 votes over Justice Michael A. Musmanno in the race for the nomination.

10 More County Plans Approved

Beaver (15); Carbon (5); Clarion (7); Crawford (9); Delaware (12); Jefferson (4); Schuylkill (12); Bradford (17); Fulton (3); and Lancaster (17). Reorganization plans submitted by Columbia and McKean counties were continued.

WOMAN IS HELD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Creola McIntosh Holland, 60, mother of city councilman Thomas McIntosh, has been held in $500 bail for the grand jury, charged with gambling and resisting police.

During 90 minute testimony Wednesday before Chief Magistrate John P. Walsh and Magistrate Joseph A. Murphy, two policemen said they found slips of paper with 180 apparent numbers bets in the Holland home.

Peace Corps Man Finds Love On Job

RECIFE, Brazil (AP)—Cupid's arrow pierced an agriculture project in Brazil's northeast, and as a result an American boy, whose family lives in Radnor, Pa., and a Dutch girl are going to be married and raise cattle in Canada.

The boy, Mark Smith, 25, of the Peace Corps, and his fiancée, Maryke Thladens, 22, a farm girl from the Netherlands working on a Dutch project similar to the U.S. Peace Corps, fell in love while working with young Brazilian farmers in an agriculture colony at Pindorama.

The couple will leave June 21 for Radnor, Pa., where they will visit Smith's family.

They will then go to the Netherlands to be married. They plan to travel around Europe before going to Canada where he will run a cattle farm.

FIND BOY'S BODY

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—Members of the Plymouth Fire Company have found the body of James Atkinson, 12, of Conshohocken, which has been missing since Monday.

The body was discovered Wednesday and the boy's clothing was found on the river bank 15 feet away. The boy disappeared apparently while swimming, police said.

Dad's Day June 21
SPORTSWEAR IS VIBRANT, BOLD; RIGHT FOR DAD

Dad or granddad may be an active athlete or a placid porch sitter or he may combine the pleasures of each. In any case, he will enjoy a gift of sportswear this Father's Day.

Styled with cool comfort, smart good looks and practicality in mind, the 1964 array of men's casuals comes in two distinct categories, active sportswear and spectator sportswear.

This year the active sportswear has the "look of the pro." The garments designed for wear while playing golf or tennis or worn for swimming, surfing, fishing and boating are largely devoid of meaningless details that aid the sportsman in his game.

COMFORT BUILT IN

Take golf clothes, for instance. Golf slacks and shorts, while retaining their slim, trim good looks, have plenty of built-in room for comfort in the seat and at the waist. They also have such added conveniences as tailored-in tee holders and towel straps.

Both knitted and woven golf shirts have expansion swing backs that provide complete freedom of movement. The fabrics also have the benefits of absorptive fibers that soak up perspiration as well as many with easy care wash-wear factors.

THEY'RE FEATHERWEIGHT

Featherweight golf jackets that can be stowed in the ball pocket of a golf bag also have action-free tailoring and fend off chilly breezes as well as summer showers. Even golf hose have new comfort factors via cushioned soles.

Tennis clothes, of course, are traditionally white. However, Dad, if he is a racketeer, knows that the classic cable-knit white tennis sweaters carry edge trims of red and deep blue. Lightweight duck, poplin or gabardine tennis shorts are built with plenty of leg room and most have self-supporting waistbands.

The classic collared white knit tennis shirts are joined this year by V-necks that carry the same red and blue edge trims as the sweaters.

HE'S MODERN MARINER

Dad or granddad will be the epitome of the modern mariner in the new easy care boating jackets, many of which carry parka hoods to foil the spray, squalls and summer gales.

He will tote on water resistant slacks and shorts, the new comfortable deck-gripping shoes with

WANTS RESPECT OF AID NATIONS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John P. Saylor, R-Pa., says growing ingratitude and contempt for the United States by recipients of U.S. foreign aid reflects the need for a complete reappraisal of the aid program.

Saylor said in a statement Tuesday that recipients of American assistance should be given notice that the U.S. will no longer tolerate threats and abuses.

He said demonstrations against U.S. property and personnel occurred in Ghana, India, Egypt, Cambodia, Indonesia, The Congo and Viet Nam. In these countries, he said, generous sums of American tax dollars have been accepted as a matter of course.

He said also that "while bringing confusion to many areas of the world, the foreign aid program drains our own resources and promotes inflation at home."

LONG STRIKE IS SETTLED

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — National Guard troops packed up their gear Wednesday as striking workers returned to the Essex Wire Corp., scene of a violent 102-day-strike.

Hillsdale, a city of some 7,600 in southern Michigan, began reverting to normal late Tuesday when members of Local 810 of the International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, ratified a new four-year contract by an 83-34 vote.

Italo Bragalone, manager of the Essex plant, said about 100 men would be recalled immediately. He said others would be called back as production picks up.

George Gould, international representative of the IUE, reported that the members would receive a wage increase of 36 cents an hour spread over the four-year period. The first year of the contract calls for a 10-cent boost, he said.

uppers of either canvas or water-proof leather and the boating shirts with roomy flapped pockets that safely hold the many gadgets a sailor needs.

Fishermen dads and granddads go for waders, tough duck fishing pants, many-pocketed fly vests and both warm shirts for chilly mornings and cool shirts for the warmer parts of the day.

BOOKED FOR DAD

Books make dandy Dad's Day gifts, especially if they are aimed at dad's hobbies or interests.

Dad's Day June 21
FATHER WANTS GIFT CLOTHES

With the "dog days" in the offing, a gift of business wear on Father's Day will please dad or granddad the whole summer through. Keen to comfort as well as to good looks, the updated suits, shirts, ties and hats are smart, light in weight and they incorporate the plus factor of maintaining their crisp look even on the muggiest days.

Take the new business shirts, for instance. Colored and striped shirts have really moved in on the fashion scene in a big way. The stripes vary in width from hairlines to big broad British-type tape stripes.

Select the colors he likes best from pale pastel blues, grays, tans and yellows to vibrant hues of the same plus burgundies, olives and black stripes.

SMART SHIRTINGS

The same assortment are also available in the smart solid colored shirtings with, of course, the exception of black. Other smart solids are soft shades of linen, bamboo and off-white.

Each year there are more half-sleeved business shirts worn and the range of collar styles is even greater than that found in fall shirts due to the increased numbers of low band and bandless collars offered for summer.

Summer ties range from luxurious silks in the familiar reps, shantung and patterned weaves to washable light colors made of man-made fibers, madras and printed cottons. Look for the preferred lighter and brighter colors this year.

SUIT OR HAT

Of course, dad or granddad will have to select and try on his Father's Day present of a suit or hat but the giving of them is made easy via convenient gift certificates from his favorite store.

Dad will probably go for one of the newly popular light shaded suits. Those new sprightly shades are bound to give a fellow a lift during the warm weather. The new lights range from conservative classics in putty and clay shades to some very handsome iridescent in contemporary models.

The new straw hats, coordinated to the current summer suits, also appear in lighter shades than before. Many of the newest are in textured natural colored straws and the classic bleached panamas are high on the fashion list, too.

MAKE FINE GIFTS

Ash trays, smoker's stands, humidors and lighters make fine Father's Day gifts. A box of his favorite cigars hits the spot, too.

One way to get around dad on Father's Day is with a new dress or sports belt. Dressy leathers and reptile skins and casual fabrics and webbing come in many good looking styles to round out dad's business and casual outfits.

Dad's Day June 21
TO GIVE DAD "TOP HONORS" ON DAD'S DAY

Father's Day 1964 occurs, appropriately enough, on June 21, the summer solstice and the longest day of the year. It can also be the happiest day of the year for our dads and granddads if they are appropriately honored by their sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters.

According to the Father's Day Council, the official slogan of this year's Father's Day will be "Thanks, Dad—Granddad, Too." Although, at first glance, that phrase may seem terse and trite, what else can be said to these men who have labored so long and hard, sacrificed so much and devoted their thoughts and hours to the maintenance and betterment of their families?

Especially in this Olympic year, youngsters have their current heroes—athletes who are justly honored for triumphs they have worked hard and trained conscientiously to achieve. Dad's and granddad's victories, though they may seem less spectacular, are none the less great and, in the long run, far more important to the life and success of our country.

No medals or laurel wreaths are presented to American fathers for providing good homes for their children, for clothing them better than any others, for giving them increasingly wonderful educational opportunities, for devoting their leisure hours to their children's companionship, for guiding them in the paths of good faith, good citizenship and self-reliance.

THEY'RE REWARDED

Most dads consider themselves sufficiently rewarded for their unstinting efforts when they see their children healthy, happy and growing up to and achieving a useful and wholesome adult life of their own.

The theme of Father's Day, "Juvenile Integrity Starts in the Home," indicates the responsibility of dads and granddads to inculcate their children with the highest standards of ethics and deportment.

Few, of course, hold formal seminars with their boys and girls to discuss these matters. Most, however, employ a more subtle, less self-conscious and more effective way of imparting those ideals. They set the examples by their own conduct, words and deeds.

While we can't honor our dads and granddads with medals, cheers and anthems, we can express our gratitude, especially on

Dad's Day June 21
Rings Are Fitting Gifts For Father

Because rings have always been masculine symbols of authority, they are especially fitting for fathers. Of late, more and more men have been wearing various kinds of rings.

Jewelry stores carry attractive rings symbolizing schools, colleges or fraternal groups, as well as distinguished signet rings. Cameos and intaglios, as well as engraved tiger's eyes, are among the new rings that are extremely popular, says the Jewelry Industry Council.

A birthstone ring, with the particular stone for the month of dad's birth, can be a delightful and meaningful gift that he will wear with pride for many years.

Heart Disease Is Big Killer In Pa.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Deaths in Pennsylvania totaled 126,199 last year, an increase of 3,210 from 1962, the State Health Department reported today.

Heart disease was the biggest killer, claiming 53,495 lives, according to the department's statistics.

Cancer resulted in 20,316 deaths.

"His Day" of the year—not only with a "Thanks, dad!"—but also with some more concrete tokens of our appreciation.

Honor dad on Father's Day with a dinner of the official menu of soup, chicken, cranberry sauce, ice cream, cake and the trimmings. Pile his place with gifts that will not only bring him joy but which will make him proud. Wear a rose (the official flower) on Father's Day—a red rose for the living, a white rose for the departed.

Show your dad and granddad that he's your champion, your hero.

President To Tackle Vast Problems Of World Soon

adv HOLD Release due soon WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—President Johnson said Wednesday many of the world's most urgent problems will persist beyond the cold war, and outlined a far-flung program for attacking them.

He said he intends to dedicate 1965 to the search for new techniques to make man's knowledge serve man's welfare.

To commemorate the United Nations' 20th birthday, 1965 has been designated as International Cooperation Year.

YEAR OF SCIENCE

He took note of that in a speech prepared for commencement exercises at Holy Cross College.

"Let this be the year of science, let it be the turning point in the struggle—not of man against man, but of man against nature. In the midst of tension, let us begin to chart a course toward the possibilities of conquest which bypass the politics of the cold war," he said.

"For our part, we intend to call upon all the resources of this nation—public and private—to work with other nations to find new methods of improving the life of man."

NO SIMPLE SOLUTION

Johnson spoke of poverty, of disease, and of diminishing natural resources in enumerating menaces to man's welfare.

He said there is no simple solution of these problems. In the past, he added, there would have been no solution at all; but, today, "the constantly unfolding conquests of science give man the power over his world and nature which bring the prospects of success within the purview of hope."

Among other scientific advances that he mentioned was a breakthrough, in the past several months, in the use of large-scale atomic reactors for commercial power. He said the development of the large-scale reactor offers the dramatic prospect of transforming sea water into water suitable for human consumption and industrial use.

NONE CAN STAND BY

During International Cooperation Year, Johnson said, this country will expand efforts to prevent and control disease in every continent, cooperating with other nations that seek to elevate the well-being of mankind.

"No nation can stand idly by while millions suffer and die from afflictions which we have the power to prevent," he said.

In addition, Johnson said, a worldwide weather system will move ahead. Working together, on a global basis, he said, new strides toward coping with storm and drought and flood can be made.

Johnson paid tribute, at the outset of his speech, to the late President John F. Kennedy and Pope John XXIII. He called them two of the great men of this century. They died within six months of each other.

SCENT-SATIONAL

He-man toiletries scented to please the male make fine Father's Day gifts. They include after-shave lotions, antiperspirants and pre-electric shave liquids. Bath and shave talcs and hair dressing preparations also come in handsomely designed containers that are attractively packaged.

Dads on the move will enjoy gifts of luggage this Father's Day—from overnights to matched sets. Smart brief cases and attache cases make appreciated gifts, too.

Goldwater Gallops To GOP Lead At Governors' Meet As Nixon's '3rd Force' Dies

By JACK BELL
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The annual Governors' Conference, which has had all the aspects of a miniature Republican convention ended Wednesday with Sen. Barry Goldwater galloping almost unchallenged toward the GOP presidential nomination. The 56th annual convention hasn't produced a moderate Republican opponent for the conservative senator from Arizona. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon tried hard to stir up a nomination fight that some of his critics thought was aimed at opening the way for Nixon himself to run against President Johnson as a compromise choice.

NO NIXON SUPPORT
But none of the GOP governors who had claimed that Goldwater's views are not in the mainstream of Republican thinking wanted to take on the senator.

Latest to bow out was Gov. George Romney of Michigan. He announced through his press secretary Tuesday that he would not become an active candidate. Romney said he would accept a draft, but wouldn't go back on a 1962 commitment to Michigan voters not to seek national office this year.

This announcement came after Nixon said he had urged Romney to run, and Romney said he had been urged by some fellow governors to make the race and would consider it.

SCRANTON EXIT
Earlier, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania retired from the field after former President Dwight D. Eisenhower put on a go-and-stop operation in his behalf. Eisenhower urged Scranton to make himself more available, then advised the governor not to join any cabal against Goldwater.

This left Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as Goldwater's only avowed opponent. And it was evident that none of the other governors, nor Nixon, wanted to support him.

Nixon, who flew out of town after his strenuous efforts to launch a stop-Goldwater movement failed, warned party moderates that there is less than a 50-50 chance of preventing Goldwater's nomination.

He told a news conference in Baltimore that if Romney fails to actively seek the nomination it will go to Goldwater on the first ballot at the convention in San Francisco next month.

Nixon said both Rockefeller and Scranton are virtually out of the race and his own prospects are remote.

DENIES BLOCK
Nixon called his efforts to get a governor into the race an attempt to create a "third force" between Goldwater and Rockefeller. Asked if he wasn't trying to stop Goldwater after having assured the senator prior to the June 2 California primary that he wouldn't join in such a move, Nixon replied:

"Many Goldwater supporters would so construe it. I don't." Nixon said he was trying to advance a candidate who would represent the principles of the party as they are thought of in the industrial states of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and California.

Nixon said he plans to meet next week with Eisenhower. He said Eisenhower, who talked with Romney at the conference, has spoken highly of the Michigan governor.

FATHER LEADS 'FRUG' BEAT AT LUCI'S PARTY

WASHINGTON (AP) — With President Johnson leading the clapping beat, his 16-year-old daughter demonstrated the Frug for a delighted White House audience.

The guests crowded about in a circle to watch Luci and her partner, Ricky Keeton, 17, of Houston, Tex., do the twisting rhythm at a late dancing party Tuesday night.

Young Peter Duchin, son of the famed band leader, Eddie Duchin was playing one of his own versions of the twists, which he calls "The Frugal," when it all started.

FIRST STATE DINNER
Luci was attending her first formal state dinner party. She was invited along with the 160 guests honoring visiting Prime Minister Jens Otto Krag of Denmark and his attractive actress wife.

The Krag had gone home a half hour earlier and it was near midnight when Luci's center-floor frug came around.

Luci's sedate sister, Lynda, 20, had the goodnight round with young Marine Lieut. David LeFevre of Albany, N.Y., whom she has been dating.

Wednesday evening Lynda starred as the hostess at a hamburger gala for the nation's top students honored by Johnson at the White House as presidential scholars.

Foreign Office sources said Malaysian and Indonesian negotiators still have not reached agreement on all details of the verification procedure.

OTTAWA (AP)—The House of Commons Tuesday night approved a government bill to replace the chiefs of staff of Canada's three armed forces with a single defense chief.

A PRR spokesman in Philadelphia said "there is nothing like 600 workers involved."

The spokesman said 27 jobs were transferred from Columbus to Altoona, and 13 new jobs established at Altoona. He said this meant that 13 would be placed on the extra list.

As to Conway, the spokesman said he did not know how many men were involved, but that he would check it out and report later. He said that the walkout was not system wide, that all operations east of Harrisburg and in the Pittsburgh area were working.

POLICE WATCH FOR NEW SIGNS OF RACE RIOTS

By REX THOMAS

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Watchful police kept a round-the-clock surveillance on the Negro community in Tuscaloosa Wednesday, alert for signs of new demonstrations in the wake of Tuesday's bloody street battle.

Negro leaders, some of them in jail as a result of the clash with police, gave no indication of their future course.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. ordered some of his key staff members sent in to Tuscaloosa. City authorities assumed that some effort might be made to keep the demonstrations alive despite the ban on street marches which touched off the wild outbreak of club swinging and rock and bottle throwing.

ARE JAILED
Ninety-six Negroes went to jail in the aftermath of a 45-minute siege which sent 33 Negroes and a policeman to a hospital with cuts and bruises and tear-gas sickness.

City police and sheriffs deputies, reinforced by plainclothes state investigators, patrolled Negro sections through the night but found no evidence of organized Negro activity.

State troopers, some of whom stood guard at the University of Alabama campus in Tuscaloosa just a year ago when two Negroes were admitted to the university, reportedly were ready to move into the city if local authorities asked for them.

The clash between Negro demonstrators and police was the first outbreak of racial violence in this heavily industrialized community since the Autherine Lucy riot eight years ago. Miss Lucy, the first Negro enrolled as a student at the university, was driven from the campus by an angry white mob. Later she was expelled for accusing university authorities of conspiring with the rioting crowd.

BALL TO WARN GREEKS OF U. S. VIEW OF CYPRUS

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson has ordered Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to fly to Athens to warn the Greek government of the serious view the United States takes of the sharpening crisis over Cyprus, American officials said Wednesday.

He may go later to Ankara for talks with Turkish leaders. He was due back in Washington on Thursday to report to the President.

Ball has been in Geneva since Monday for the closing stage of the United Nations trade and development conference.

President Makarios of Cyprus, leader of the Greek Cypriots, called Tuesday night for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council meeting to "denounce threats of the Turkish government to invade our island."

In a note to heads of state and government he charged that

Turkey "has now amassed a great number of naval and air forces ready for immediate invasion of Cyprus."

He accused the Turks of repeatedly violating air space over Cyprus and dropping arms to Turkish Cypriots.

Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou, dispatched by Makarios to arrange for the council meeting, told newsmen he planned to see Council President Arlene Assouan of the Ivory Coast today.

Kyprianou, whose plane landed in Boston because of weather conditions over New York, said Cyprus was relatively calm, but "in view of statements and information we have, we anticipate trouble from Turkey."

Makarios called for council action after repeated invasion alarms had been sounded in both Nicosia and Athens.

There was no indication in Turkey that an invasion force was poised to attack the island where Turkish and Greek Cypriot factions have been engaged in a bitter struggle. The Ankara government has warned, however, that it would invade if it considered it necessary to protect the rights of Turkish Cypriot minority.

Dad's Day June 21

JEWELRY HAS SPECIAL GLOW

Much as he may hide it, every dad is a sentimentalist at heart and is more thrilled than he will ever admit when those he loves take time to remember him with a special gift. A gift of jewelry is sure to bring him a warm glow this Father's Day and will be cherished for years to come, says the Jewelry Industry Council.

High on the list of popular jewelry gifts are today's attractive new cuff links. These come in karat gold, gold filled or silver with colored stones or in designs representing his favorite hobby, sport, initials or other special motif.

Tie tacs and tie bars, always bound to please, combine usefulness and fashion. The many new interesting finishes such as Florentine, brushed and multi-colored gold, give all these gifts of men's jewelry additional appeal and style.

Many a dad who still wears a battered timepiece that has seen too many years will welcome a fashionable modern watch as a lasting expression of love and recognition. Elegantly styled and precision-engineered to give the most efficient performance, these watches will be worn with real pride by the lucky fathers who receive them.

The jeweler has a wide choice of styles in quality watches that will match dad's tastes and needs perfectly, whether for business, dress, sports or leisure. He will be happy to advise and help you make a wise choice from his wide selection of fine jeweled-lever watches.

Many of these wind themselves, resist dust, wind, water, shock and magnetic fields and are hand-somely designed. Among the newer trends are watches that are powered electrically or electronically and have no winding mechanism at all. Rising in popularity is the thin pocket watch.

To add elegance and fashion to dad's present watch, there is a wide selection of watch bands.

HIS THIRD CADILLAC...HIS FIRST NEW ONE

This man is enjoying his first brand-new Cadillac—after becoming acquainted with the car's unsurpassed value by twice buying used Cadillacs.

He learned that a late model used Cadillac gave him more standard equipment and engineering advancements than most new cars.

First of all, while Cadillac's styling was continually refined, it never lost the clean, dignified look that says Cadillac and Cadillac alone. The smooth, quiet performance and complete reliability of his used Cadillac was a constant source of enjoyment. Then, too, he and his family enjoyed luxury and comfort to a degree reserved exclusively for Cadillac owners.

The pride of ownership of so distinctive a car was a never-ending pleasure, for he had the satisfaction—always—of knowing he drove the finest.

When it came time to trade his previously owned Cadillac for a later model, he found its value had held remarkably high . . . and returned a substantial part of his original investment.

So what could be more natural—or wise—than to make the eventual move to a new Cadillac?

New or used, there is no finer motoring investment than a Cadillac. And new or used, your authorized dealer has one to fit any budget. There's never been a better time to invest in the finest of them all.

PHOTO FLIGHTS OVER LAOS TO BE DISCUSSED

By ANTOINE YARED
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger said today that continuance of American reconnaissance flights over Laos and fighter escorts for the flights is still a matter of decision between him and Premier Souvanna Phouma.

Unger told a news conference he expects to consult with Prince Souvanna Thursday on the flights when the premier returns from an overnight trip to the royal capital of Luang Prabang. Souvanna went there this morning, presumably to brief King Savang Vathana on developments.

The ambassador was commenting on unofficial reports that Souvanna had said he wanted the American reconnaissance flights—which he requested three weeks ago—stopped today.

Unger said he had no formal knowledge of Souvanna's reported desire to have the flights halted. But well-informed sources said no flights had been scheduled for today.

These sources said there had been no plans for daily flights on an indefinite basis. They indicated the purpose of the reconnaissance missions—to spot Communist military concentrations—might have been achieved but that further periodic flights might be needed for checks.

Souvanna indicated to newsmen Tuesday that he had not given authorization for armed fighters to escort the photo planes. The U.S. decision to provide armed fighter cover for the unarmed planes has stirred a controversy in Vientiane.

A U.S. Embassy spokesman said earlier the decision to provide fighter cover had been made on consultation with Souvanna's government.

Unger reaffirmed he had consulted with Souvanna regarding protection for the reconnaissance planes but declined to elaborate.

Souvanna said he had proposed that Laotian air force fighters escort the American photo jets.

The Communist Pathet Lao charged in a Peking broadcast that six U.S. jet fighters flew over Khang Khay, the Pathet Lao headquarters in central Laos, and nearby Phong Savang Tuesday and attacked Phong Savang with 12 bombs and two rockets.

EXPECT COMPLAINT

Prince Souphanouvong, the Pathet Lao leader, had been expected to complain further about the reported attack today at a meeting in Khang Khay with members of the three-nation International Control Commission, Soviet Ambassador Sergei Afanassiev and British Charge d'Affaires John Denson.

Bad weather forced the helicopters taking the foreign diplomats to Khang Khay to return to Vientiane.

The Pathet Lao claimed its gunners damaged two of the U.S. planes that attacked Phong Savang.

(The New York Times, quoting reliable sources in Washington, said the U.S. jets attacked a Communist gun position in retaliation for the downing of two American jets over the weekend. The Times said President Johnson and his advisers were reported to have ordered the attack to underline U.S. determination to stand firm in Laos. The attack was also interpreted in Washington as an effort to recoup prestige in the wake of the downing of the jets, the Times said.)

DOUBT BARRY WILL AID GOP RACE IN STATE

WASHINGTON (AP)—One Republican congressman from Pennsylvania believes the election of Republicans will be affected in the fall if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona becomes the party's presidential candidate.

But most of the others in the state's GOP delegation in Congress, polled Tuesday, said they foresee little or no effect on their candidacies.

Rep. Joseph M. McDade of Scranton said "Much depends on what happens in the future, but Goldwater's nomination could have some effect on the election of Republicans in Pennsylvania in November."

McDade said he thinks Goldwater's voting strength is yet to be demonstrated in Pennsylvania, and "He'll have to recede from some of the positions he has taken in the past."

SUPPORTS SCRANTON

McDade added that he has always been a supporter of Gov. Scranton and that he continues "to be of that frame of mind."

Over the weekend Sen. Hugh Scott of Philadelphia and Rep. Robert J. Corbett of Pittsburgh had said that Goldwater's nomination might cost the Republicans about 30 seats in congress, most of them in the house.

Rep. Herman T. Schneebeli of Williamsport said that insofar as his 17th Congressional District is concerned, "I doubt it would have any effect" on the election of Republicans in November.

Rep. Paul B. Dague, Downingtown, said he did not think it would affect his candidacy and he thought Goldwater, if nominated, might run fairly well in his congressional district, the 9th.

Rep. John C. Kunkel, Harrisburg, said only that he will support the Republican nominee for president.

GOODLING SUPPORT

Rep. George A. Goodling, Loganville, said he was "willing to take my chances with Mr. Goldwater if he becomes the nominee."

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Smethport, said he felt there are some districts in the state in which the nomination of Goldwater would be a handicap to Republican candidates. "On the whole, I would say Sen. Goldwater could carry the 23rd District if he were nominated," he commented.

Rep. James D. Weaver, Erie, asserted he has supported and continues to support Scranton for the nomination. But he said if Goldwater were nominated "I do not think it will have any effect on the election of Republicans in my (24th) district."

Rep. Willard S. Curtin, Morrisville, said he doubted if Goldwater's nomination would have much effect on his candidacy.

Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, Worcester, said "almost any" GOP presidential candidate would carry his 13th District by a good margin.

Rep. James G. Fulton, Pittsburgh, said he was not a part of a "stop anybody movement," and that he is 100 per cent for Scranton and has been because of his policy. Republicans who run on party lines, Fulton said, "will have to rise or fall with Sen. Goldwater if he is nominated."

Rep. William H. Milliken, Sharon Hill, who is not a candidate for re-election, said he was not close enough to the situation to comment. Rep. John P. Saylor, Johnstown, and Rep. J. Irving Whalley, Windber, declined comment.

MANY CREDIT BIG BOOSTS TO TAX CUT

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The most tantalizing whodunit of the season is who is going to get the biggest boost out of the federal income tax cut.

The Commerce Department has asked manufacturers about their sales prospects and reports them feeling that they for one will benefit in the form of rising sales.

Their predictions are notably more expansive than just three months ago. Part of this is because they feel the tax cut is going to help their salesmen in dealings with optimistic customers. Also sales already have risen faster than they had expected and they feel that the confidence born from the tax cut is a major factor there, too.

BREAK RECORDS

The survey of 1,200 large manufacturers shows them expecting sales to advance right through September at least, at a pace of 2 per cent or better, breaking records along the way.

The manufacturers have to share with a number of others this feeling that the tax cut is just the thing to help them a lot in coming months.

Insurance salesmen are urging old customers to expand their coverage and tackling new prospects who have moved up a notch financially.

Investment houses and stock brokers are eyeing the windfall as money that could be channeled into securities.

Travel agents and recreation managers are confident that families will put any savings into more fun or longer trips, or more expensive facilities.

SAVINGS INCREASE

Savings institutions, however, are sure that they'll get a good deal of the increased take home pay, at least in the early months.

The Commerce Department reports that it searlier survey had shown manufacturers expecting factory sales to go up $900 million in the first three months of this year. In fact, they went up $2.9 billion to a record $109.1 billion for the period.

One of the nuisances of railroad travel in summer was having to get cinders out of your eyes from the steam engine's exhaust.

The nation's No. 1 Ideal marriage was that between Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford.

Calvin Coolidge was being hailed as the perfect president.

There was no canned beer in the refrigerator, then known as an icebox. If father wanted an evening drink of beer, he'd send one of the kids with a pail to the nearest saloon. The trick was to grease the sides of the pail with butter. That was supposed to keep down the suds.

The only people in college who were married were members of the faculty.

Small towns had hitching posts, no parking meters.

Your congressman was measured not so much by how he voted on international issues but by whether he remembered to send you a packet of free seeds.

So, if you're trying to pass for under 50, never admit out loud that you can remember when—It cost a dime to go to the movies, and you could get a fair seat at a Broadway play for $1.10.

Butchers wore straw cuffs. Motor cars had isinglass curtains to protect the occupants from rain or cold weather.

All babies were born at home. Hospitals were for sick persons. Dieting was practically unheard of. A fat man could spill more calories on his necktie at lunch than a modern doctor would now allow him to eat all day.

When you wanted to go out for an evening of fun on the town, you said, "let's make whoopee!"

A strong dose of Epsom salts usually cured anything that ailed you.

Johnson's $9 Million Is Not Wealthiest President

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Lyndon B. Johnsons are doing quite well financially — what with an estimated wealth of more than $9 million — but don't get the idea they are the richest family ever to inhabit the White House.

Who, then, was our best-heeled president? It's hard to figure — because of the changing values of money and other factors — but all evidence points to George Washington.

When the father of his country died he left real estate valued then at $530,000, including the famous Mount Vernon. Translated into today's values that might mean $20 million or more.

SHORT OF CASH

Though Washington was rich in land, slaves and tobacco, he was sometimes short of cash. In fact, just before his first inauguration, he had to hit a fellow townsman in Alexandria, Va., up for a loan of 600 pounds, at 6 per cent interest.

"Short crops and other causes not entirely within my control" had temporarily strapped him, he said.

Second richest president may be Herbert Hoover, though this is not known with any certainty. An engineer and mining promoter, he rolled up a $6-million fortune as early as 1914. There is no exact information how this has grown since, though it is known that Hoover has made large gifts to education and charity.

Other well-to-do presidents: John F. Kennedy — whose estate was reported totaled something like $10 million, at least. Franklin D. Roosevelt — $1,085,500.

Theodore Roosevelt — $811,000. Thomas Jefferson died owing $40,000. He had really slipped fixing up that magnificent home, Monticello, at Charlottesville, Va., and was never a man to stint the pennies during his many years of ill-paid public service.

Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman are feeling no pain financially.

Back in 1952, during the presidential campaign, Eisenhower published a financial accounting showing a 10-year net income after taxes of $643,148. The bulk of this was a $476,250 net on his book "Crusade in Europe."

Truman has done well, starting his retirement by writing his memoirs for a net of maybe $250,000, and going right on.

All this delving into presidential fortunes, or lack thereof, is occasioned by a report in the Washington Evening Star Tuesday that the Johnson family is worth $9 million or more, in television and radio stations, land, banks and stocks.

NETWORKS TO POOL SERVICES FOR ELECTION

NEW YORK (AP) — The three major radio-television networks and The Associated Press will pool the collection of election returns in the November presidential, senatorial and gubernatorial races.

United Press International was also reported considering participation in the program, to be called Network Election Service.

The announcement Tuesday, issued after a meeting of officials of the organizations, said the service will use more than 100,000 reporters to cover returns at the precinct or county level.

The announcement added: "Network Election Service will be administered by a board of directors consisting of one representative from each network. They will be Arnold Snyder, manager of election coverage for ABC News; William Eames, editorial director of the CBS News election unit; and Frank Jordan, manager of election coverage for NBC News.

The Associated Press will participate as a nonvoting member of Network Election Service. "Returns will be reported simultaneously to each of the three individual networks, which will post such returns on a state-by-state basis in their respective studios on election night. In addition, statewide totals in the presidential elections will be relayed to a single tabulating center in New York, which will maintain the running national tabulation on presidential returns. The tabulating center will then transmit its national totals to each network, so that the same national figure will be available to each network simultaneously.

"Under the agreement

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

EXCISES: The way has been cleared for the House to vote this week on repealing excise taxes on some of the items dear to women: furs, cosmetics, jewelry and luggage and handbags. Republicans want to halve the 10 per cent tax this year and eliminate it entirely next year.

In an action Tuesday, the Rules Committee made it possible for the GOP proposal to be taken up in conjunction with a bill — cleared for debate Thursday — to extend a variety of excise taxes for another year.

ARMS CONTROL: President Johnson called Tuesday for redoubled efforts toward gaining effective arms controls as the Geneva disarmament conference resumed its sessions.

He instructed William C. Foster, chief U.S. negotiator at the 17-nation conference, to leave no stone unturned in attempting to find safeguarded alternatives to the arms race.

EXTRA FUNDS: President Johnson signed Tuesday a $1-336,687,143 emergency appropriations bill which included $41-370,000 to help Alaska recover from its recent earthquake.

reached at meetings today, each network is free to continue individual election analysis systems, which in the main involve the analysis of returns from representative precincts. Each network will bear the responsibility of manning such precincts and communicating the results. These returns, however, will not be included in network election service returns posted by the networks.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater provided Republican governors with a booklet when some of them wanted clarification on where he stood on the issues. This wasn't a very flattering thing to do to them.

It was like telling them they would know where he stood if they had paid attention and read this booklet: "Sen. Goldwater Speaks Out On the Issues." It had been in circulation nationwide for weeks.

Nevertheless, Goldwater has not always been consistent in what he said over the past few years. This doesn't bother him. He himself has said: "Consistency is not necessarily a virtue."

CAN CHANGE MIND

He said there was something wrong with a public man who didn't change his mind "to meet the developments of the times."

In the 1950s he said former President Harry S. Truman had "fathered all the misdeeds of recent years" and was the "archi-test of everything wrong with America today."

In 1963, he said America needs another decisive president like Truman who, he thought, would go down in history as one of the greatest presidents.

In 1963, Goldwater, who proudly calls himself a conservative, said the true one seeks progress based on proven values of the past while the "so-called liberal" is one who seeks change for the sake of change alone. In 1964 he said he thinks history will rate him a liberal.

INVASION OF CHINA

In 1962, he said as president he would seriously consider transporting Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist troops from Formosa to the Red China mainland for an invasion. But the next year he said the problem was how to get them there.

Last February he was for using warships to halt the shipment of British buses and French products to Cuba but a month later said he would try to discourage Allied trade with Fidel Castro by "example and use of diplomatic pressure."

In 1961, Goldwater talked of landing armed forces in Cuba to throw out Castro and in 1963 of a blockade, support of Cuban exile attacks, and invasion by the Organization of American States and by "ourselves."

He even thought, he said, he would be for doing "anything necessary to get rid of that cancer (Castro). If it means war, let it mean war." But this year he said "the suggestion that we must either accept communism in Cuba or invade Cuba is defeatist and dangerous nonsense."

He had said it was improper for the government to intervene in school desegregation or to use troops to enforce desegregation orders of the courts. But by last month he changed his view, said "I'm glad when I can recognize I'm wrong."

FAVORED RULE CHANGE

When he first came to the Senate in 1953, he was all for changing the filibuster rules to cut off lengthy debates. He changed and now says he won't vote to end the anti-civil rights filibuster now in its 75th day.

He said if he was president he would break off diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union but last January added he would need Senate approval to do this. He couldn't have been more wrong.

The Senate must approve treaties but not breaking off diplomatic relations.

He stopped advocating putting Social Security on a voluntary basis and now says his only interest in the system is to improve it by making the pension dollar sound. After he lost the

New Hampshire primary in March, his campaign manager said his talk of a voluntary Social Security system was a major boner.

OPPOSES INCOME TAX

He favors getting rid of the "whole graduated income tax" so that rich and poor pay the same percentage of tax. But the American income tax has always been graduated from the time of the first one in Civil War days under President Abraham Lincoln.

In 1962 and 1963, Goldwater favored getting out of the United Nations. By the latter part of 1963, he was for staying in. By 1964 he said he couldn't recall ever having suggested getting out.

Between 1960 and 1964 Goldwater said so many times he would not seek the Republican presidential nomination that as late as Sept. 15, 1963, he said, "I've said a thousand times I'm going to run for the Senate, nothing more."

But just 11 days before that The Associated Press reported Goldwater had rented the entire 15th floor of a hotel in San Francisco for next month which is when the Republicans hold their nomination convention there.

Then on Jan. 3, 1964, he announced his candidacy and at the same time said he would

WOULD BOOST PA. DEBT LIMIT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Senate Minority Whip William J. Lane, D-Washington, proposed a constitutional amendment Wednesday to increase Pennsylvania's debt limit from $1 million to $1 billion.

The proposal came just one day after the Senate passed another bill that would broaden the state's borrowing powers and eliminate the authority method of financing construction.

Lane's bill was referred to the committee on legislation.

"I am offering this bill so that if the house does not act on the measure we passed Tuesday, we still will have this one around," Lane said.

By doing away with the authority system of financing, the Senate bill would eliminate the General State Authority and the Highway and Bridge Authority.

run for the Senate from Arizona, too, although he had derided Lyndon B. Johnson for running for the vice presidency and the Senate in 1960.

He had said he wouldn't seek both. Now he says he will give up the Senate race if he gets the presidential nomination.

SHOES MAKE FINE GIFTS ON FATHER'S DAY

All dads dig comfortable shoes for Father's Day. No matter where they stand on fancy gadgets and hand-painted ties, on cool leather casuals they stand firm and fashion-right.

The summer crop of leather casual styles is more varied and distinctive than ever, reports Shoe Fashion Service of Leather Industries of America. New styling ideas worked on the moccasin, slipper and tie shoe are interpreted in the most advanced lightweight leather tannages, including smooth, waxy, grained and brushed.

Stylish sires and snappy slippers make a happy hot weather combination from Dad's Day on. Many of the smartest styles in this category feature strictly-for-shower straps or tassel ties. Two colors or textures of leather are used in various ways—as contrasting binding, tassels or plug (vamp inset).

CHOOSE SLIPON

For fathers who like a foot-hugging shoe, choose a slipper with elasticized side gores.

Through both his lazy and lively hours, the leather moccasin will move with freedom and style. This long-time favorite is available conventionally fashioned of soft glove leather or in the new waxed leather that adds a dash of difference to the moc's traditional lines.

Hand-stitched moccasin bladders and mocs with saddle straps of contrasting leather texture or color are other noteworthy variations.

OUTDOOR TYPE?

If dad is an outdoors type who prefers hiking to the hammock

GOP Hopes To Cut Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican foreign aid opponents disclosed Wednesday they hope to slice from $200 million to $400 million from the administration's "barebones" foreign aid authorization bill.

The $3.5-billion measure reached the amendment stage Wednesday.

Rep. E. Ross Adair, R-Ind., told a newsman several alternative money-saving amendments have been prepared and developments on the House floor would determine which would be offered.

He said he planned to attempt no cuts in the military assistance portion of the bill, which amounts to $1,055,000,000.

THEY'RE COORDINATED

Bigger than ever this year are the coordinates that find sport jackets perfectly mated with their slacks in both fabric and color. These outfits make it a cinch for dad to combine his leisure clothes tastefully.

and industry to indolence, give him a pair of high-risers or ankle-covering desert boots. In rugged grained and brushed leather textures, as well as soft glove leather, this lightweight footwear will give him comfort, style and protection through the most strenuous summer and winter activities.

Dad will be correct color-wise if his gift shoes are in one of the rich brown tones favored this season. Other popular shades include charcoal tan, sand and the natural tannage range of colors.

Not sure of dad's shoe size?

One easy answer is to copy the figures inside his latest pair of shoes. The shoe clerk will be happy to decipher them for you. Or—even easier—present pop with a shoe gift certificate and give him the added pleasure of choosing his own favorite style.

Dad's Day June 21

LITTLE GIFTS OF LEATHER GO OVER BIG

From little leathers grow great gift ideas for Father's Day.

Leather wallets, smoking and bar accessories, sporting equipment, belts, grooming aids and other leather goods—all are elegant items for dad and easily obtainable, reports Leather Industries of America.

Wafter-thin yet roomy enough for all of dad's essentials, leather wallets are available in fine-grained or smooth cowhide, steerhide and calfskin. Other favored textures with men are pinseal, pikskin and alligator. In all leathers, there is a color choice of black or brown, with some olive, mahogany and tan. Many leather billfolds boast removable card and photo cases, secret bill compartments and credit card sections.

TANDEM GIFTS

For an impressive tandem gift, present him with a matching key-case in the same leather as his new wallet. Other useful pocketables for pop include glass cases, pocket secretaries, money clips and card cases.

If dad is a bit of a dandy, he'll appreciate good grooming aids in leather. Fine examples are toilet kits (either zipper or button models), compact shoe-shine kits, leather-backed hair and clothes brushes, and handsome jewelry boxes.

Leather tobacco pouches and and leather-covered humidors make a thoughtful gift for the father who smokes cigars or a pipe.

Gifts to please dad are fine leather belts with silver or brass buckles.

His sports interests may clue the right Father's Day gift. If he's a golf nut, he'll appreciate a leather golf bag, a pair of golfing shoes, mittens for his woods, or a "lettie" glove for a solid grip. For the hunter, there are tooled leather gun cases, suede shooting vests with pockets for shells and high hunting boots of tough but supple leather.

BOLD PATTERNS

Ready for Father's Day giving, the handsome new casual or spectator sportswear is lighter, brighter and bolder in pattern than in many years.

Look for vibrant plaids, stripes and checks in the new sport jackets. Look for new versions and new colors in seersuckers that now include plaids and narrow stripes.

There is a new denim look as well as an updated linen look in the current sport jackets. Look for featherweight wools, wash-wears and new blends of man-made and natural fibers.

Nature produces blossoms and seeds on a system of control which is the relative length of nights and days.

Weddings

McPherson-Crone

Miss Jane Louise Crone, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Crone McPherson, R. 3, and the late Donald F. Crone, became the bride of Philip Lynwood McPherson, Camp Lejeune, N. C., son of Oliver Glenn McPherson Jr., R. 3, and the late Anne Rawlings McPherson, at Flohr's Lutheran Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Henry Early performed the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white flowers. The organist, Mrs. Henry Early, played "Love Divine All Love Excelling," "Cantilene Nuptiale," DuBois; "O Promise Me," DeKoven; "Because," D'Hardelot, and "O Perfect Love," Barnby.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a floor-length gown of sate peau. The fitted bodice was styled with a bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves, worn with mitts. The bodice and front of the controlled bell skirt were accented with appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace, trimmed with pearls. A self fabric bow with streamers at the back cascaded into a detachable chapel train. Her pouf veil of silk illusion fell from a forward silk organza flower headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Joan

Forsythe, R. 3, wore a floor-length dress of pearl blue satin, falling in double ruffles in the front from the waist. Her headpiece was a matching flower hat with veil and she carried white pompons with blue streamers. The bridesmaids were Miss Roanne Schneider and Miss Beverly Phiel, R. 3. They wore street-length gowns of cotton blue sate peau, with white bodices embroidered in blue and controlled skirts. They featured removable short-sleeved, scoop-necked jackets with back panel falling to the hemlines. They wore matching flower hats with veils and carried white pompons with blue streamers.

C. Gary Crone, Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., served as best man and the ushers were William M. McPherson, R. 3, and E/6 Stuart McPherson, Patuxent River, Md.

Donald Alan Crone, 265 Buford Ave., was the ring bearer. The flower girl, Miss Carole Elizabeth McPherson, Patuxent River, Md., wore a dress of white organza over pearl blue taffeta and she carried a basket of mixed flowers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of turquoise chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Following a reception at the Castown fire hall the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. For traveling the bride chose a two-piece beige and white double-netted suit. Upon their return they will reside at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The bride is a graduate of this year's class at Gettysburg High School. The groom attended Stark High School, Orange, Texas, and is serving in the Marine Corps.

Out-of-town guests were present from North Carolina, Maryland, Texas, New York, Washington, D. C., New Jersey and Maine.

Reed-Guise

Miss Mae Irene Guise, R. 2, daughter of Mrs. Edith Mabel Guise, Gardners R. 2, and Robert K. Reed, Shippensburg R. 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Reed, Shippensburg, were married recently in the Mt. Holy Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. J. Kenneth Barner, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heberling were the attendants.

SHIRT NEWS

Colorful sport shirts are a top choice for Father's Day. In the selection are solids, checks, madras plaids and bold stripes. Knits are hits in sport shirts ranging from classic favorites to two- and three-tone styles.

TUNE IN ENJOYMENT

He can have music wherever he goes and listen to sporting events, too, if you give dad a pocket-size transistor radio for Father's Day.

BIG TRADE IN RANKS OF NBA

BALTIMORE (AP)—A monumental 5-for-3 trade with the Baltimore Bullets, involving such stars as Bailey Howell and Terry Dischinger, has given General Manager Coach Charles Wolf of the Detroit Pistons a good start toward keeping a promise.

The promise, made at the end of last season, was that the Pistons would undergo at least a "60 per cent turnover" in personnel before they started a new National Basketball Association campaign.

Besides Howell, greatest scorer in Piston history, Detroit gave up veterans Don Ohl and Bob Ferry and their No. 2 and 3 draft choices—6-foot-8 Les Hunter of Chicago Loyola and ball-handling whiz Wally Jones of Villanova.

Along with Dischinger, the 1963 NBA rookie of the year and a 20.8-points-per-game man last season, Baltimore dealt off rookies Rod Thorn and Don Kojis.

The Bullets finished fourth and the Pistons fifth in the league's Western half, but the management of both clubs contended Tuesday's deal, the biggest in NBA history, makes the future look rosy.

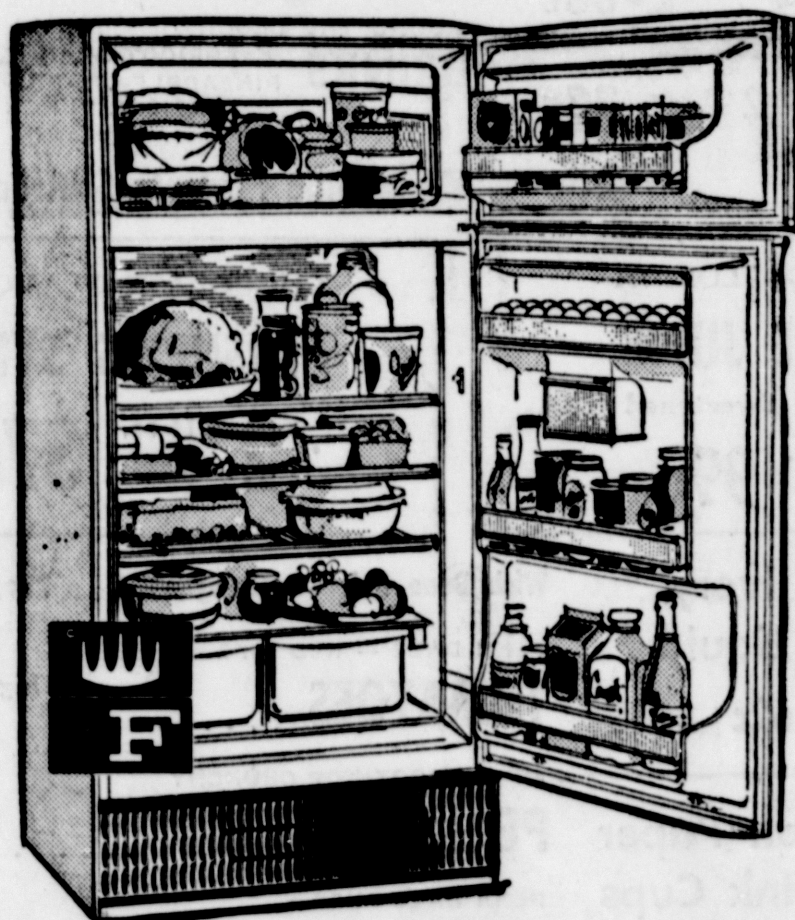

Tobacco is the fifth largest U.S. cash crop, ranking behind cotton, wheat, corn and soybeans.
